Recent returnees from a winter in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., are MR. and MRS. CHARLES FREDERIC DYE of Lake Park drive.

MR. and MRS. LEWIS D. DUNN flew to Cleveland last Thursday and while Mr. Dunn attended a conference, Mrs. Dunn spent the day in Warren, Ohio, visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Tucker. They returned to Birmingham Saturday.

Mrs. Dunn will entertain the twenty-five members of the Diversity Literary Club for luncheon and music in her home and gardens Monday, May 25.

PAULA MILLARD of Los Angeles arrived in Birmingham last Monday after a trip from California which took her via a fruit cargo ship to Panama, then by air to Jamaica, Cuba and Florida. She was the guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Hoover of Catalpa. She left Birmingham for Los Angeles Saturday, on the last lap of her five weeks' trip.

DR. and MRS. STANLEY JESSON of Hawthorne road entertained at a cocktail party before the 21st annual dinner dance of the Northwestern Dental Club held at Dearborn Inn Saturday evening. Dr. Jesson is the retiring president of the club.

FRANCIS A. BUCKERIDGE, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Buckeridge of Brookside road, arrived home from Japan last week. He is a graduate of Baldwin High School and Michigan State College. At both schools he was first chemist in the Los Angeles section of GHQ in Tokyo.

MR. and MRS. MAURICE P. UPPLER of Emmons avenue and their children, Lois and Corby, attended the Holland Tulip Festival last week. They also spent some time with their daughter, Jere, a junior at Hope College.

Mr. and Mrs. George White and Mr. and Mrs. William Knight of Utica accompanied the Upplers to Holland.

MR. and MRS. MAURICE P. SMITH of Pilgrim road are going to Columbia, Mo., tomorrow to see their daughter, Marjorie, who will graduate Tuesday from Stephens College.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds F. Griffin and their two children have been visiting Mr. Griffin's aunt and uncle, MR. and MRS. ROBERT OWEN of Park street. They will return next week to Fresno, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin, who are both formerly of this city, are back in Birmingham for the first time in ten years.

Oakland Hills Scene Of Ladies Luncheon

The new lounge of the Oakland Hills Country Club was decked out in spring flowers for the luncheon and games party of the ladies of Oakland Hills, which was held yesterday.

Chairman of the day was Mrs. Arthur C. Oils and she was assisted by Mrs. G. Ralph Angle, Mrs. James E. Davis and Mrs. William F. Ploch.

Announce Troth at Family Dinner

Helen Freemire

News of the engagement of Helen Louise Freemire, daughter of Mrs. Martin Freemire of Highland Park, to Charles Frederic Dye, Jr., of Lake Park drive, came as a surprise announcement.

Southfield Church Plans to Organize New Men's Club

A group of interested men met together recently in the Southfield Methodist Church to discuss the possibilities of organizing a Men's Club within the church.

A very definite need was felt for this type of organization which will carry as one of its objectives work among the boys of the community, it was explained.

Plans for an organizational meeting were made which will call together all the interested men of the church. The meeting will take place tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. in the church.

Charles Sherwin was appointed chairman of the entertainment committee, Charles Runts heads the refreshment committee and Oscar Cook, Milton McQuater and Oliver Stillwagon were appointed as the reception committee.

Exchange Marriage Vows at Holy Name

Holy Name Church was the scene Saturday of the marriage of Lois Theresa Flanigan, daughter of James P. Flanigan of North Woodward avenue, to James R. Moore. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay D. Moore of Carleton avenue. The morning ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ralph Barton.

White pebble satin was worn by the bride, fashioned with a fitted bodice, long sleeves and a hoop skirt. Her veil was of fingertip length, and her flowers were an arm bouquet of white roses.

Yellow taffeta was worn by the maid of honor, Miss Mildred Flanigan, while aqua taffeta was worn by Miss Francis Flanigan, the bridesmaid. Both girls carried bouquets of white phlox and pink carnations.

Donald Moore was best man, with John J. Flanigan, Charles E. Borgness and Robert Smith as ushers.

Following a reception at the Community House, the couple left for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan. For traveling the new Mrs. Moore chose a pink light weight wool suit, fashioned with a flare jacket.
