Three Birmingham Women to Attend DAR Convention

Pietz Hill Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, is being represented by Mrs. Clarence W. Wacker, state director of the DAR, and Mrs. Thomas R. Sevin, chapter delegate and Mrs. William J. Taylor, state delegate page who are this week attending the 56th Continental Congress in Washington, D. C.
 This is the DAR's homecoming year with representatives of 155,982 national members meeting in Constitution hall for the first time since before the war.
 Michigan chapter regents and delegates will gather Sunday evening in the Chinese Room of the Mayflower Hotel for a reception given by the state regent, Mrs. Chester F. Miller. The convention officially opens Monday evening.

 A reception at the White House Friday afternoon, is the crowning social function, with the traditional closing banquet that evening at the Mayflower.
 Mrs. Julius Y. Talmage, outgoing president-general, will conduct all meetings and lead the pilgrimage to Valley Forge on Sunday to dedicate the Memorial Bell Tower. This is the highlight of her regime since $100,000 has been raised by the society for this permanent stone structure to house the carillon of 48 state bells, national birthday bell and memorial tablets naming veterans and gold star heroes of all American wars.

Local Girl Speaks Vows at Saturday Morning Rites

In a morning ceremony before 300 guests at St. Hugo of the Hills, Geraldine Rita Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Harrison Hanson of Dorchester road, spoke her marriage vows to Lieutenant Thomas Lincoln Duffley of Ft. Knox, Ky. He is the son of Mrs. Catherine Duffley of Pontiac. The Rev. Francis Stack performed the rites before an altar decorated with bouquets of white anemones, gladioli and carnations.
 The bride's gown was of white satin, with a very long train trimmed with chantilly lace, and a full length chantilly lace veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and white roses centered with a white orchid.
 Margaret Lawler, the maid of honor, of Pontiac, wore a gown with a pink lace top and full miquette skirt. The bridesmaids, Sheila O'Connor and Frances Bean of Pontiac, and Mrs. Franklin Richard Lang of Chicago, wore gowns similar to that of the maid of honor, only fashioned in aqua. All the bride's attendants carried purple sweet peas and wore matching net headpieces.
 John G. Bean of Pontiac was best man, while Harrison F. Hanson of Birmingham and James J. Shoup and Eugene R. Gross of Pontiac acted as groomsmen.
 A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony at Forest Lake Country Club, where the reception was also held in the afternoon.
 Mrs. Hanson chose a shrimp colored dress for her daughter's

Install Pierce PTA Officers at Recent Meeting

Charles N. Blunt was installed as president of the Pierce PTA by the outgoing president at a recent meeting with Russell M. Richardson as father vice-president, Mrs. Wilson H. Feldman, mother vice-president, Mrs. Lester Simson, secretary, and Harry Bows, treasurer.
 Mrs. J. Munroe Ross and Mrs. John May were elected delegates to the PTA Council, Mrs. Edward M. Laird, historian, and Miss Lauriee Tamber and Miss Lydia Terrill, teacher representatives.
 The Kindergarten Round-Up for Pierce School will be held Wednesday, June 11 at 3:30 in the kindergarten, announced Malcolm Ferguson, principal.
 Welcome on this occasion, and urged to attend, are all mothers of children who will attend Pierce School for the first time in September, stated Ferguson. Mothers may bring their children.
 This meeting will afford parents an opportunity to meet Ferguson, Miss Frances Brown, kindergarten teacher, Miss Francis Curran, school nurse, and Mrs. Wilson Feldman, new P.T.A. mother-vice-president.
 Each of these individuals is expected to have something important and helpful to tell mothers about this new school experience and will be ready to answer parents' questions.
 Refreshments and care of children will be in charge of a committee of mothers and Girl Scouts. Any parent having questions about this "round-up" may contact Pierce School, according to Ferguson.

Plan Rummage Sale

Tomorrow and Saturday are the dates of the Eastern Star rummage sale, which is to be held in the Masonic Temple.
 Mrs. D. C. Giles is chairman of the sale.
 Refreshments were served by a committee composed of Mrs. Wilbur Sears, chairman, Mrs. J. J. Ansteth, Mrs. Harold D. Colwell, Mrs. Norman Burns and Mrs. Lester Smith. Mrs. Ferguson poured.
