BENDIX automatic Home Laundry

DOES ALL THE WORK!

You set a dial—add soap—Bendix does the rest. Bendix washes, rinses three times, damp dries, and shuts itself off! Bendix is the only automatic washer that's been performing these washday miracles for nine whole years! There's no question about Bendix—it's been proved in use.

Maybe you'd like to see just what this washday wonder does, how it gets your complete washing done without you using a finger—then come in today for a demonstration. It is probable that you will want your Bendix quickly, and we'll both be pleased if you are one of our "first-to-be-served!"

Bendix uses less hot water for doing your wash than any other washing method. Consequently, it uses less soap, giving you a considerable saving. Our demonstrator will show you exactly how it does this.

Bendix Deluxe Model is $249.50
Bendix Standard Model — $229.50

WITH THE COLLEGIANS

Recently elected women's representative association representing the University of Detroit at Ripon College in Wisconsin is Carol Maynard of Mohegan road.

Sandra DaSef, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace N. DaSef of Warren Court, has been named business manager of The Times school newspaper at Monticello College, Ill.

Betty Steffe of Birmingham was a member of the committee in charge of the Mother's Day luncheon by Senate sorority of Western College at the Park American Hotel.

Dorothy Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Thompson of Blount Hall has been elected vice-president of her sophomore class at Simmons College for next year, it was announced at the annual Student Government party held at the college campus recently.

Jane Eckenrode, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eckenrode, 248 Argyle boulevard, has just been named president of the social committee at Monticello College, Ill. She will represent the committee on the Student Council and will be in charge of the dining room and teas.

Jane is also a member of the Junior Committee, a member of the Monticello Christian Association and the International Relations Club.

Marjorie Joan Uebele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert E. Uebele, Jr. of Yarmouth road, is completing her first year of college at Southern Seminary and Junior College in Virginia. Marjorie, who has been attending the Seminary for three years, is active in many of the campus organizations of the college, including the International Relations Club, the Miracle Book Club and the basketball squad. She will return to her home early in June.

Gordon Cole, Jim Wagner and Bud Wyatt, all Birmingham boys, were members of the Sigma Chi chorus of Michigan State College which won the interfraternity sing at Lansing last week.

Harry Wagner, Jim's brother, and a Sigma Chi pledge, sings with the chorus, but was not eligible for the above contest which was limited to active members only.

A pair of falcons, traced in rhinestones, is the dramatic trimming on a two-piece costume of white Irish linen designed by Anthony Blotta, one of America's fashion leaders.

SOUTH AMERICAN STYLE

Pretty and blonde Angela Greene, Warner Brothers model, sets the style for spring in this soft-shouldered sun back play dress done in smart cotton prints and South American designs. The color scheme of the print is shades of red, purple, gold, and green on a shaly white background.

105 Attend Mother, Daughter Banquet at Community House

The mother and daughter banquet given May 14 by the Birmingham Business Women and the Sororist Club was a huge success, with a total attendance of 105 members and guests gathered at the Community House.

The "Andrew Sisters and Bing Crosby" skit presented by members of the Birmingham Lions Club received a large ovation, as did the ballet and Spanish dances. Toasted by a student of Marjorie LeBeau's.

Present to the mothers was given by Mrs. Louise Cobb, while Mrs. Marjorie Robbins gave honors to the daughters.

Committee in charge of the affair was headed by Mrs. Myrtle Bird. She was assisted by Mrs. Rose Buck, Mrs. Louise Cobb, Mrs. Hazel Parks, Mrs. Esther Lints, Mrs. Virginia Brennan and Miss Julia Kagin.

In Activities at Ohio Wesleyan

Janice Dalee, 187 Pilgrim road, a student at Ohio Wesleyan University, is one of the members of a radio speech class selected to spend a day of study and observation at radio station WMRN, Marion, Ohio. Miss Dalee, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Dalee, is majoring in journalism.

At the invitation of the assistant general manager of WMRN, the class spent last Friday at Marion and took part in all phases of radio work.

Under the supervision of the continuity editor, Miss Dalee will help with the writing of commercial copy, introductions and closes to programs, musical show scripts and other radio copy.
