Scholarships Are Awarded to Seven Local Students

Four Baldwin High School students, two Cranbrook boys, and one student of the Bloomfield Hills school are among the winners of the University of Michigan Regents-Alumni Scholarships for 1947-48, it was announced yesterday by Erich A. Walter, director of the Office of Student Affairs and chairman of the scholarship committee of that college.

Lloyd E. Appell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Appell, 522 Lincoln avenue, Robert J. Brunraber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Brunraber, 940 Floyd street, Jeanne Alice Lange, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Lange, 408 Baldwin road, and Charles Albert Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Murray, 338 Tilbury road, Baldwin; Robert Edward Damiano and John William Kausch of Dearborn, Cranbrook; and Mary Louise Lacy, Bloomfield Hills, were announced as winners of the scholarships.

St. Ritas Guild Meets Last Week

Mrs. Bernard Laurim of Lakeview drive was hostess to the members of St. Rita's Guild of Holy Name Church on the evening of May 1.

Over 400 hundred articles were packaged for the fish pond which is the Guild's project for the Jubilee Fair to be held at the Community House June 14 and 15.

Those participating were Mrs. Gregory Frederick, Mrs. William Bogan, Mrs. William Heffernan, Mrs. Frank O'Donnell, Mrs. Walter Kadell, Mrs. Joseph Beh, Mrs. Bertha Poole, Mrs. Bradford Springer and Mrs. Gertrude Frederick.

Packed Houses Enjoy Village Players Final Presentation

The Village Players' presentation of "The Late George Apley" by John Marquand and George S. Kaufman, presented April 25 and 26 and May 2 and 3 at the Playhouse, was enthusiastically received by packed houses at all performances.

Although an extremely difficult vehicle, dependent chiefly on inflection and subtleties for its effectiveness, it was ably directed by Mrs. Farrington Holt, assisted by Mrs. Edward Reid.

The role of Apley, a stuffy Bostonian completely absorbed in the Boston waifs and other mediocre trivialities, was adequately handled by Dr. John Hassberger.

Dinner parties preceded all performances of the play, with Mr. and Mrs. Berrien Ketchum having a few friends in the evening of the opening night, and Mr. and Mrs. Jasper B. Reid and the Hans Schjolins entertaining the next evening. The Schjolin guest of honor was Alf Lysholm of Gothenburg, Sweden.

May 3 was the most popular night for parties. On that evening Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Reid entertained at a cocktail party before the performance and a dinner afterwards at Fox and Hounds Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Genung, and Mr. and Mrs. Rolfe Spinning had small groups of friends after the show.

Troth Told by Tiny Scrolls At Open House

Tiny white scrolls, made to look like diplomas and tied with green and white ribbon, announced the engagement last Saturday of Ruth Joann Minks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Minks of Henrietta street, and Charles Edward Radwanski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Radwanski of Detroit.

The scrolls were handed out at the door by Doris Minks, the bride-elect's sister.

Ruth received her guests wearing a navy blue faille suit trimmed with eyelet embroidery. Her flowers were gardenias.

The bride-elect graduated from Baldwin High School and will graduate from Michigan State College in June, where she is majoring in music. She is a member of the American Guild of Organists and recently gave her own organ recital. In September she will assume a new position as music supervisor in Upland, Calif. public schools.

Her fiance graduated in March from Michigan State College where he also majored in music and is taking graduate work until June. He is a member of Phi Mu Alpha, the national music honorary fraternity.

He spent three years in the United States Army where he had his own band. He has been soloist with the Portland Symphony and in September he will be working in Hollywood.

The couple plan a mid-summer wedding and will make their home in Los Angeles, Calif.

Hostesses to St. Catherine's Guild At Tuesday Meeting

Mrs. Philip H. Smith and Mrs. L. T. Gilbert were co-hostesses to the members of the St. Catherine's Guild of St. James Church when it met Tuesday to make final plans for the annual bridge tea and baby bazaar to be held Wednesday, May 14, from 1 to 5 p. m. in the church parlors.

The members are busy this week putting the finishing touches on such articles as sunsuits, pinafores, terry cloth robes, bibs, handknit sweaters, booties and bonnets and other baby articles.

Tickets may be had from any of the members.

Speaks Vows at Candlelight Rites Friday

At an evening ceremony in Embury Methodist Church Friday, Norma Louise Crouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Crouse, 1011 Smith avenue, became the bride of Clayton L. DeKett, son of Mrs. Hubert Thyer, of Alpena, Mich.

The Rev. Jesse D. Epps performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with vases of white flowers and lighted tapers in low candelabra.

For her wedding the bride chose a beige gabardine suit with matching accessories and carried a white Bible with an arrangement of white carnations and streamers.

Her sister, Velma Jean, as maid of honor, wore a blue suit and matching hat with a corsage of American Beauty roses.

Joseph Grammatico of Detroit served as best man, and ushers were Howard Weldon and Edward Smith.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors.

The couple left later for a honeymoon in Washington, D. C., and will reside at Lawrenceville, Virginia.
