Star Carpet Cleaning Co. Offers You This

EMERGENCY SERVICE

During The Telephone Strike

We know you want the winter's accumulation of dirt and mud removed from your rugs and carpets... but you cannot get in touch with us easily. Well... just fill in the coupon at the bottom of this ad, paste on a penny postcard and mail it to us. Our trucks are out here every TUESDAY and FRIDAY making pick-ups and deliveries... they will call at your home on the day you specify.

Your floor coverings will be returned... looking as bright and lovely as new... within 5 days. And you will be glad to know that Star's prices remain economically low. Mail the postcard to Star today.

DO IT NOW—

We're going to be swamped with business very soon—particularly when the phone strike is over—and we won't be able to handle your order later with the promptness that we can give it now. We strongly advise you to have your rugs Star-cleaned this month.

Open Golf Season At Country Club

Last Friday the ladies of the Birmingham Country Club officially opened the 1947 golf season. Forty-eight enthusiastic golfers turned out for luncheon and to hear about the golf tournaments and interesting events planned for their pleasure.

Mrs. Donald Watkins is the golf chairman, assisted by Mrs. Eldon Auker. Others serving on the golf program are Mrs. Hubert Hester, Mrs. M. F. Diaz, Mrs. Grace Newton, Mrs. Conrad Given, Mrs. W. H. Nettle, Mrs. Walter Rohmeyer, Mrs. H. F. Klein, Mrs. Ralph Ellstrom, Mrs. Edgar Pugh and Mrs. Alva Doud.

May 14 is the date of the next bridge party at the club. The committee planning the affair consists of Mrs. Harold Conner, social chairman; Mrs. Pauline chairman; Mrs. James Riddell, Mrs. Ellstrom, Mrs. E. Eting DuBois and Mrs. Perry Pyarr.

Garden Club News

Included in the plans for the coming Garden Week, being sponsored by the Birmingham Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association to make Birmingham the "City of Flowering Crab Apple Trees," is the weekly bird walk, May 10, at Cranbrook Institute of Science.

Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Frank D. Webb, 224 Arlington road.

Other garden club news is the wild flower pilgrimages of the home gardeners which will start from the Community House at one o'clock next Thursday.

Mrs. Webb will talk on "Planting and Spring Pruning."
