

Finish Arrangements For Stephens Dinner

The committee planning the Stephens College Dinner, which is to be held at the Community House next Tuesday, May 13, will meet tomorrow evening to complete arrangements for the event.

Mrs. James Sidway is handling reservations, and has announced that anyone interested in Stephens may leave a reservation for dinner at the Community House by Saturday.

News from Wynnewood, Pa. this week concerns PATRICIA KNOWLES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Knowles, formerly of Birmingham, now of that city. Patricia is chairman of the advertising committee for the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra's concert for youth, and in the social field, is publicity chairman of the Buckridge Ski Club.

Ramsey-Render Vows Spoken May 3 at Candlelight Rites

At a candlelight ceremony Saturday afternoon, May 3, at the First Presbyterian Church, Glencoe Kathleen Render, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Render of Lincoln avenue, spoke her marriage vows to Earl Curtis Ramsey of Harbor Beach, Mich. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Ramsey of that city.

The Rev. W. Glen Harris read the ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was robed in a gown of crisp white faille with a scalloped sweetheart neckline and long fitted sleeves. The full skirt ended in a long circular train, and her fingertip veil of French silk tulle was held in place by a coronet of lilacs of the valley. She carried a bouquet of orchids and white roses.

A pearl grey crepe gown fashioned with cap sleeves and a full skirt which fell in unpressed pleats was worn by the maid of honor, Mary Jane Welsh. Her hairdress was of white daisies, and her arm bouquet was of white daisies centered with blue iris.

Similar dresses to that of the maid of honor in a shade of flamingo pink were worn by the three bridesmaids, Signe Haggie of Northville, Wilma Ramsey, the sister of the groom from Harbor Beach, and Beth Fraser of Detroit. Their hairdresses were of white daisies and white iris.

Ronald Render, brother of the bride, was best man, while Dick Floss of Milwaukee, Wis., Carl Moore of Owosso, Mich., and Hubert Webster of Royal Oak, Mich., seated the guests.

Mrs. Render chose a powder blue crepe trimmed in matching colored lace for her daughter's wedding, with which she wore a matching flowered hat, black accessories and a gardenia corsage. The groom's mother wore a navy dress accented by her navy hat with pastel flower trim and her gardenia corsage.

Following a reception at the Community House, the couple left for a wedding trip to Chicago, with the bride wearing a pale blue faille suit. She wore navy accessories, a white straw hat trimmed in white roses, and the orchid from the bridal bouquet.

Following their honeymoon the couple will live in Evanston, Ind.

We told you we'd keep heckling you about May 10th. We're just doing it for your own good. We don't want you to miss "Club 1930." We'll have Wally Trunk back with us. Louis Coral, the chairman, said the refreshments would be potato chips, pretzels, cokes, etc. It will be very similar to a night club. We can't divulge what the entertainment will be so you'll just have to come and find out for yourselves. It is hoped that Roger Cummings will give another pantomime of Al Jolson for us, too; he was a big hit on "Night-Club-Night."

Don't forget the baseball game at Pierce Field on Sunday at 2:00. Last Thursday most everyone was playing bridge and pinocchle. A few couples dancing were Homer Corsi, Viola Haselbar, Jim Aubertson, Shirley Coons, Robert Clements and Margie Robins. All the rest were playing ping pong and pool. We're trying to raise enough money for repair work on the pool tables and ping pong paddles; it seems that everyone has been a little rough and careless.

Anyone who would like to play golf on Saturday or Sunday afternoons and eventually play in a tournament, please leave your name with Nell Wakefield or someone down in the Club Room.

We've heard of great plans for the Club this month so try and get down real soon. Some girls had the idea that the Club 1930 was private. They were finally convinced that it wasn't and now they are down every night and thoroughly enjoying themselves. You don't have to be a member, just as long as you're between the ages of 19 and 30. Come down and join us this month.

Church Women's May Breakfast Held Last Friday

"The Christian Church is challenged, as never before, to unite as one team and to speak in a unified voice to the nations of the world to bring about the brotherhood of man," were the words of the Rev. James Wright in an address to the Council of Church Women at their annual May breakfast Friday at the St. James Church.

The morning's program was planned by Mrs. M. H. Smiley. Mrs. David Thornberry led the devotionals, her topic being "Abiding Faith," and the great need of sacrificial living. Mrs. Rogers Marquis, soloist, rendered three spring numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Stanton at the piano. Breakfast arrangements were made by Mrs. Sydney Patterson and her committee.

About 125 women attended the breakfast. Members of the Board of the Council present were Mrs. Smiley, vice-president, Mrs. W. E. House, secretary, and Mrs. Stuart Ollen, treasurer. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Earl Cunningham.

Following the welcome by the chairman, Mrs. Loren Blunt, organizer and leader of the religious club at Barrum School, gave an interesting report on her work. Mrs. Blunt said while her club of 25 members is small, she feels the results are very much worth while.

Guests at the head table were Mrs. Thornberry, Mrs. Marquis, Mrs. Stanton, Mrs. Blunt, Rev. Wright and Rev. Harold Towne.

SOCIETY NEWS must be in the Eccentric editorial office by five o'clock every Tuesday afternoon. Deadline for CLUB NEWS remains at noon Mondays. adv. dv

WHEN SUNDAY COMES:

Remember Your MOTHER

For Sunday is Mother's Day! It is the day when your Mother's love so richly deserves special commemoration, and when the assurance of your love for her becomes cherished anew.

Remember your Mother! Mark the day in her joy and memories with a La Belle Gift; choose it unthinkingly—there's still time—and have it ready for her on Sunday morning. In silent eloquence will speak volumes to her and in turn you will partake of the kind of happiness which comes only when someone we dearly love it made the happier.
