Obituary

Mrs. Mattie Van Gordon

Mrs. Mattie A. Simpson Van Gordon of 128 Tennyson, Highland Park, died Sunday in the Henry Ford hospital in Detroit.

She was born in Birmingham on Nov. 18, 1863, and on May 2, 1887, married Edgar C. Van Gordon, also of Birmingham. The couple moved to Detroit in 1890, and she has spent the rest of her life there and in Highland Park.

Mrs. Van Gordon was a charter member of the Detroit Garden club and a member of the New Century club there.

She is survived by one son, Floyd Van Gordon of Highland Park, and a sister, Mrs. Adelia Chappelle of Detroit.

Funeral services were held Wednesday from the Metropolitan Methodist church, of which she was a member, with burial in Greenwood cemetery in Birmingham. The Rev. C. B. Allen, pastor emeritus, officiated.

Col. P. T. Gregory

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Pelissier of Villa road and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Malarney of Greenwood avenue have been notified of the death of their uncle, Col. Peter Tate Gregory, who died suddenly Friday in Port Townsend, Wash.

Col. Gregory was born in Fulton, Ky., and had since lived in many sections of this country as well as the Philippines, Honolulu and Panama while serving with the U. S. Army. He was retired from active military duty last March.

At the end of the first World War he was a member of the military escort which accompanied the Gold Star Mothers to France. A few years later he was ROTC instructor when this branch was founded in the schools of Detroit.

He is also survived by his widow, two brothers in Kentucky, and Frank Gregory of Detroit.

He will be buried in Arlington National Cemetery today, with full military honors.

Gertrude A. Opal

Mrs. Gertrude A. Opal died Saturday at the home of her brother, Paul R. Smith of 489 Argyle blvd.

She was born on Nov. 27, 1874, in Jamestown, N. Y., and of late years had made her home in Detroit.

The survivors are her husband Ernest J. Opal, and brother, Paul R. Smith.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Hyer and Mulligan funeral home in Highland Park. Burial will be made in West Lawn Cemetery in Omaha, Nebr., with the Rev. Robert M. Frehse officiating.

Membership Contest

Contest ending last Monday was held at Baldwin to determine the three homerooms having the largest PTA membership.

Prizes of three, two, and one dollar each will be awarded the winning rooms according to the percentage standings.

The membership fees were increased one dollar per person to $1.50 per school year.
