Methodist Church Scene of Pearsall-LaTourette Rites

The marriage of Miss Paula LaTourette to Garth Denell Pearsall was solemnized Saturday in a candlelight service in the First Methodist church. The double ring ceremony was held at 6 o'clock.

Miss LaTourette's gown was of royal Green Bengaline, made with a tight bodice and a rolled shawl collar and a full skirt. The gowns of the bridesmaids were styled the same, in gold bengaline. They carried cascade bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Jo LaTourette, as maid of honor, British Alysne Suttie of Detroit and Patricia Pearsall, sister of the groom, as bridesmaids.

Miss LaTourette's gown was of royal Green Bengaline, made with a tight bodice and a rolled shawl collar and a full skirt. The gowns of the bridesmaids were styled the same, in gold bengaline. They carried cascade bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Pearsall of High street and was attended by his brother, Lee Pearsall, of Rochester.

The guests were seated by John H. Roy and James Johnston of Birmingham and Robert Bachelor of Plymouth, Mich.

The bride's mother selected a gown of coral with which she wore coral accessories. Mrs. Pearsall wore aqua, with matching accessories. Each wore a gardenia corsage.

For her wedding trip to Chicago, Mrs. Pearsall chose a two-piece green dress with a top coat of teal brown wool. She wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return the couple will make their home in Flint.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Arnold Runkel.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. LaTourette of Ridgedale road, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white satin, which was performed by the Rev. Arnold Runkel.

The wedding of local interest took place in Los Angeles Nov. 1 when Miss Martha Alice Rappe, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Cooksey of Los Angeles, became the bride of Dr. Kenneth R. Olson.

Dr. Olson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Olson of Avon Lake.

The ceremony was performed in the Wilshire Presbyterian church of Los Angeles and was performed by the Rev. Clarence Wright, formerly of Birmingham.

The bride was gowned in brown taffeta, fashioned with a tight bodice and full skirt. She wore matching accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of sweethearts roses and bonvairs.

The groom's sister, Mrs. Calvin Crum, was the bride's only attendant. She also wore brown, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Dr. Bowden Beatty of Leckhart, Texas, was best man, with Floyd Stanley of Birmingham as usher.

Mrs. Cooksey wore a dress of navy crepe and an American beauty corsage. The groom's mother wore a gown of gray faille with matching accessories, and a corsage of pink camellias.

The couple will make their home in Los Angeles.

Hostesses Named for Church Group Luncheon Meetings

The luncheon groups of the First Methodist church will hold their regular meetings at 1 o'clock Wednesday, Nov. 19.

The Sara Allen group will meet at the home of Mrs. Arthur Heacock at 279 South Woodward.

Mrs. Roy Smith will have charge of the luncheon.

Mrs. Lawrence Pomeroy will be the hostess to the Hattie Evans group when they meet at her home at 560 Lakeside drive, with the luncheon served by Mrs. Robert Sarridge.

The home of Mrs. Hugh Hemphill, 32400 Mayfair drive, in Beverly Hills, will be the meeting place for the Mary Utter group. Mrs. Young Moore is to have charge of the luncheon.

A potluck luncheon will be enjoyed by the Kate Wagner group at the church house at 231 West Maple road.

Mrs. James Vici will open her home at 638 Pleasant street for the Susanna Wesley group. She will be assisted by Mrs. Arthur Gillespie.

Holland Is to Be Junior AAUW Topic

"The Underground Movement in Holland" is the subject of a talk to be given by Mrs. Merta De Boer to the Junior Group of the American Association of University Women Nov. 19, at the home of Betty Bricker, 675 Ridgedale road.

Mrs. De Boer and her husband were active in the underground movement in Holland. She has traveled over most of Europe, was educated in Switzerland and Holland, and is now living in Detroit with her two boys. She is teaching Greek at Wayne University.

House Guests Feted at Hunt Club Affair

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Mixer of Poppleton avenue were hosts at a breakfast Sunday at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club.

Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kreh, Jr., of Elizabeth, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Kreh are the parents of Audrey Kreh, whose engagement to Richard Mixer was announced early last summer.

The two families attended the Michigan-Indiana football game at Ann Arbor on Saturday.

Among new electrical applications for the farm is a device that cleans a dozen eggs at one time.
