Christ Church Cranbrook will hold its Candy Cane Carnival this Friday, beginning at 4 o'clock, with dinner served at 6 and 7:30 p. m.

The committees in charge are headed by Mrs. E. H. Fletcher and Mrs. W. L. Kemp, as co-chairmen. They will be assisted by Mesdames Lyman Craig, M. A. Manley, Derwood Gamble, Alfred LaBelle, Roy Leitch and T. C. Thompson.

Others who will head the various departments of the Carnival are Mrs. E. H. Soule, sponsor; Mrs. J. A. Frost, place mats, holders; Mrs. Walker Williams, dolls; Mrs. Howard Yule, treasure chest; Mrs. Sander Gilman, knitting; Mrs. E. J. Anderson, dimmer; Mrs. H. B. Stegall, dining room; Mrs. Alan Joslyn, books; Mrs. Frederick Weard, greens; Mrs. Wayne Andree, Christmas tree and fish pond; Mrs. C. M. Drake, finance, and Mrs. M. B. Terry, publicity.

Oakland Hills Club Has Style Show Today

The Oakland Hills Country Club will be the scene of a style show when the ladies luncheon is held today, Thursday.

Mrs. James E. Davis is chairman of the affair, and is being assisted by Mrs. Marvin A. Hahn, Mrs. William F. Pioch and Mrs. Arthur C. Olfs.

The club is also planning to hold another of its "after-the-game" dinners and parties after the Michigan-Ohio-State game next Saturday.

Former Resident to Wed in Spring

The engagement of Miss Annette Elizabeth Stanley to Benedict Richard Schwager has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Coleman Stanley, of Cleveland Heights, Ohio. The Stanley family were former residents of Birmingham. Mr. Schwager is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Daniel Schwager, also of Cleveland.

Miss Stanley is a graduate of Baldwin High School, and attended Hollis College in Roanoke, Va., and is a member of the Cleveland Junior League.

Mr. Schwager prepared at the University school and is a graduate of Western Reserve College, where he was a member of Phi Gamma Delta. He served for three and one-half years as a lieutenant in the Coast Guard and saw service in both the European and Pacific theatres of war. At present he is studying law, as a senior of Western Reserve Law School, where he is affiliated with Phi Delta Phi, honorary legal fraternity.

No definite date has been set for the wedding, which will probably take place some time in the spring.

Winter Club Plans Opening Fall Dance

Dec. 13 will mark the opening of the activities of the current season for the Winter Club when its first 1947-48 dance is held. The affair will be held at the Forest Hills Country Club.

The Dance Club is made up of couples from Bloomfield Hills, Birmingham, Grosse Pointe and other Detroit suburbs, and each year is the center of many gala social events.

Already many dinners and pre-dance parties have been arranged for the opening date. Among those who are planning the most extensive entertainment are Dr. and Mrs. Alvin G. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Myron E. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. John J. O'Gorman and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Twyman.

Stephens Sororities Pledge Local Girls

Four Birmingham girls, students of Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., have been pledged to social sororities there. They are among the 582 girls who were formally pledged to the 16 sororities active on Stephens campus, on Nov. 16.

Joan M. Edwards has been pledged to Kappa Alpha Phi; Virginia Jane McChesney to Theta Tau Omega; Jacqueline Reid to Beta Phi Gamma and Patricia Sanderson to Phi Lambda Beta. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Edwards of Pierce street; Mr. and Mrs. B. McChesney of Riverside drive; Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Reid of Montrose road and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sanderson of Lincoln court.

Marriage Announced by Bride's Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Everett H. Wells of Arlington drive announced this week the marriage of their daughter, Carolyn Ruth, to George Arthur Brown, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Brown, Sr., of Huntington Woods. The ceremony was performed Friday, Nov. 7, at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Ann Arbor, in the presence of the immediate families.

Mrs. Wells attended Stephens College and the University of Michigan. Mr. Wells served with the airborne forces during the war and is now a student in the School of Business Administration at the University of Michigan. The couple will reside in Ann Arbor.

Unusual Sets to Mark St. Dunstan Presentations

Sir James Barrie's "What Every Woman Knows" will be presented by St. Dunstan's Guild early next month. Four performances will be given, the first two on Dec. 6 and 7, with the final showings on the following Friday and Saturday evenings. All will be presented at the Cranbrook Theater Pavilion.

Gervis B. McMechan will direct the performances. Mrs. Lewis C. Keenan is production head and William K. Martin is stage manager. Miss Nellie Beveridge and Mrs. William Crowford are assisting him.

J. Edward Lunders, who like Mr. McMechan served with the U. S. Navy during the war, is making the sets for the show. He has designed some unusual sets, which are built in six sections, hinged so that they fold back for use in the four scenes. Mrs. Richard Thiermeister has charge of costumes, which are from the Victorian era.

Mrs. E. J. Anderson, Miss Unice Disette, Miss Grace Fry and Mrs. E. A. Schirmer are in charge of properties.

Dinner, Open House Honor Beardslee on Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beardslee were honored guests when a dinner was given Monday evening at the home of their son, Lynn J. Beardslee of Detroit. The event honored their 50th wedding anniversary. Other guests included another son, Charles F. Beardslee, and Mrs. Beardslee, their nine grandchildren and great-grandson.

Mr. and Mrs. Beardslee were married in Redford in 1917, and for a time made their home on a farm near there. Later Mr. Beardslee entered the employ of the Ford Motor Co. He is 71 years old, and Mrs. Beardslee will celebrate her 70th birthday on Dec. 8.

Open house was held at their home, 611 Wallace street, Monday, when a host of friends and relatives visited them to offer congratulations.

Properties, J. Morrison Taylor and Miss Lind are arranging the lighting. Mrs. Lind will have charge of the ticket sellers. The programs will be arranged under the direction of Mrs. James Bond, while Mrs. Benjamin Brewster is in charge of publicity.

Announce Troth of Heather Boulton; to Wed on Wednesday

The engagement of Miss Heather Vivian Boulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Boulton, was announced by her parents Sunday. Her marriage to E. R. McCleary of Denver, Colo., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McCleary of Fort, Pa., will take place next Wednesday evening in Christ Church Cranbrook.

Miss Boulton was the honored guest at a shower given at the Evangelical Wednesday by the Misses Iola Van Der Hevel and Mary McKenzie. She will also be honored by a shower being given at the home of Mrs. Detus Brown of Detroit (tomorrow) evening.

Miss Boulton is a graduate of Pomona College in Claremont, Calif. The groom, a veteran of three years' naval service, is attending the University of Colorado in Colorado Springs. The couple will make their home in Pueblo, Colo.
