MOMS Meet to Plan Christmas Programs for Two Hospitals

The monthly meeting of the MOMS Club will be held this (Thursday) afternoon in the Community House at 2 o'clock. The reports on the recent convention will be given by the delegates who were named from the local group. Since this is the last meeting before the Christmas holidays, plans for the Christmas program for the veterans in the Marine hospital and the Dearborn Veterans' Hospital will be made. These plans must be completed at this meeting, and it is hoped that all members will be present.

The veterans in both hospitals are often dependent on the MOMS and similar organizations for the bulk of their Christmas cheer, and in the Dearborn hospital there are more men receiving attention from this group than in the past. Members are asked to remember the men at Christmas who remember them so well only a few years ago.

On Dec. 5 Mrs. Norman Lyle will be the hostess at a tea to be held in her new home on East Maple avenue. The funds will be used for a war memorial for the veterans of World War II. Further plans for the tea will be announced at a later date.

Pre-Nuptial Events Honoring Miss Hart

Mr. and Mrs. Robert West Jones entertained at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Roswell G. Curtis, in Milford Sunday, honoring Miss Elisabeth Hart, whose marriage to Robert T. Hart will take place Nov. 29.

Miss Hart will also be honored by Mrs. Charles W. Pratt and Mrs. Robert A. Wolf, when the spinster dinner is given at the Pratt home. Mrs. Wolf of Lima, Ohio, has come here for the wedding.

The rehearsal dinner will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Craig and Robert Craig on November 28.

Even the British--

Though material shortages harass them, British fashion designers are not unfriendly to the new "ding look." Here a new London creation features a skirt with hemline 14 inches from the floor, a blue and gray striped tweed suit with two rows of buttons across the waist. British women average four clothing coupons a month—this costs 18.

Junior Leagueurs Visit Two County Agencies in Pontiac

Mrs. Paul Hoffman had charge of the arrangements for the trip taken by the Oakland County branch of the Junior League of Detroit last Wednesday when they visited in Pontiac. The members went to the County Infirmary and the offices of the Oakland County Department of Social Welfare, where they learned more of the work which is being done there.

Miss Phoebe Otter was hostess at the box luncheon which was served at her home, "Apple Tower," preceding the trip.

The group has announced Dec. 27 as the date for their annual Christmas dance. The event will be held at the Orchard Lake Country Club.

Guysselman-Lovett Nuptials Noted Saturday Morning

The marriage of Miss Patricia Ann Lovett to Harry Edward Guysselman was solemnized Saturday morning at the Holy Name Church. The Rev. Ralph Duncan officiated at the ceremony which was witnessed only by members of the immediate families and a few close friends.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lamb Lovett, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a suit of deep brown with a brown hat and accessories and a corsage of green orchids.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Delbert Booth of Downers Grove, Ill. She, too, wore brown, with a corsage of blending orchids.

Mr. Guysselman, who is the son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Charles Guysselman of Jackson, had Robert Harper of Pontiac as his best man.

Following the ceremony a reception and wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Lovett, where a wine colored suit with a matching hat and corsage.

The couple left on a wedding trip through the south, and upon their return will make their home in Albion, where the groom is attending Albion College.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schuyler, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Guysselman, Miss Marguerite Guysselman, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Longman and Mrs. A. B. Durham, all of Albion.

Recent pre-nuptial events for the bride included the family dinner Friday evening at the Lovett home, and the dinner party last Tuesday evening at the Fox and Hounds Inn, given by Miss Martha Nowels of Rochester.

Christmas Ball to Be Held Dec. 27 at Hotel Statler

Among the Christmas activities planned for Cranbrook will be the annual Kingswood-Cranbrook Alumni dance which will be held on Saturday, Dec. 27. It will be given at the Statler Hotel in Detroit for the benefit of the scholarship funds of both schools.

Co-chairmen of the affair are Miss Mary Lou Striffler and Robert N. Porter. They will be assisted by Mrs. C. E. Wilson, Jr., and Richard J. Morgan, who will be in charge of tickets. Mary Lou Chapman of Rochester is designing the programs, while William G. Lerchen, Jr., and Charles Himelbock are planning the decorations. Publicity is under the direction of Nancy Lound and Paul Connolly.
