St. James Auxiliary to Meet Wednesday

The luncheon meeting of the St. James Auxiliary will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 3, in the Church at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. W. M. Milligan will read a poem, "A Mother's Thoughts on Her Son's Birthday," written especially for this meeting, by Elaine Helmer Fairlie. Mrs. Fairlie is a resident of Birmingham, and is well known in literary circles for her ability as a writer.

Mrs. Milligan has given many readings of this type in Birmingham and vicinity, and prior to her marriage was known widely because of her many radio appearances.

Nov. 1 Ceremony Joins Local Pair

Miss LaVerne Colfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albin Colfield of Chestnut street, became the bride of William L. Dayner, Jr., in a double-ring ceremony on Nov. 1.

The bride, who was gown in white satin, carried a colonial bouquet. She was attended by Leonie Napier, as maid of honor and Marjorie Heth, Joyce Caryl and Joanne Dupuis as bridesmaids.

The maid of honor wore a gown of lavender, while the bridesmaids wore yellow gowns, all of which were made alike. All carried colonial bouquets of lavender and yellow flowers.

The flower girl, little Ruth Reed, wore a white gown and carried white flowers. John Larkin, Jr., was ringbearer.

Mr. Dayner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Dayner, Sr., of Brown street, had Robert Heth as best man. The guests were seated by Joseph Napier, Dale Roberts and Stanley Everingham.

A reception was held in the Village Players theatre following the wedding. The bride's mother wore a gown of dark green, while the groom's mother wore a gown in royal blue. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Dayner have returned from a wedding trip through Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, and are making their home at Watkins Lake.

Class to Supervise Church Nursery

The Fidelis Club of the First Baptist Church held its regular business and social meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Stewart Smith on Clark Street. Among those present were Mrs. J. A. Akers, Miss Evelyn Harris, Mrs. C. Stanger, Mrs. W. Schelling, Mrs. Merritt Olson, Mrs. E. Steel, Mrs. E. Renshaw and Mrs. F.

GWTW to Return

Howard Holah, manager of the Birmingham Theater, this week revealed that the picture, "Gone With the Wind," will be returned to the theater for a run Dec. 10-16.

"There will be one after-school matinee, and one evening performance on each of the seven days," Holah explained. Regular admission prices will prevail during the showing he said.

Plans were discussed to provide for the needy at Thanksgiving and Christmas. It was also brought up for discussion that members alternate in managing the Sunday School nursery department, which is in charge of Mrs. M. O. Middle-

Mrs. Akers had charge of the devotional period, and chose for her topic, "All Things Work Together for Good."

Barbara Howarth School Proxy As SCF Says Thanks

Barbara Howarth, nine-year-old student at Franklin School, has been selected to accept the thanks of the local SCF, the representative of all Birmingham school children, for the work they did during the recent clothing drive conducted by that organization.

Barbara, one of the youngest Girl Scouts in Birmingham, was the youngest contributor in the drive. Like many others, she took clothing to the school for the collection, but unlike them, Barbara did not stop there. She felt that there must be something more which she could do and finally hit upon the idea of presenting a show.

It was, however, no ordinary show which the busy little girl gave. She gathered shears, cardboard, crayons, strings, and other materials and soon had her own handmade puppet cast ready. She wrote her own script and began to invite her little friends to see the show, which ended with the movie, "The Night Before Christmas."

Before long her proceeds totaled one dollar. Barbara wrote a letter to Mrs. Rudolph Zech, president of the local SCF, explaining what she had done and enclosed the money.

Much impressed with the little girl's industry, Mrs. Zech last week selected her to accept the thanks of the federation, extended to all the children of Birmingham who had worked so hard in helping to make the affair such an outstanding success.

Barbara was present at the meeting at which Dr. Charles R. Joy was the guest speaker, and received the thanks of the group at that time.

BIRTHS
