TWIN HEARTH INN

BOB SEELYE HOST

In the atmosphere of ghosts and goblins we held our Halloween party Thursday night. Nearly everyone came in costume, and for those who didn't there was a consequence. Verna Hankie was judged the most original, dressed in a big cardboard box. Mill Berz dressed as Aunt Jemima was judged the funniest. Ginny Walsh was judged the prettiest, dressed as a gypsy. The judging over, we started a round of very amusing games. Cider and doughnuts were served. Ginny Walsh and Dick Wilson are co-chairmen for the month of November activities. Here is the schedule:

Nov. 6, is going to be a very casual evening with cards and dancing. On Nov. 13, we are having a Sadie Hawkins party with the traditional Sadie Hawkins activities. Nov. 20, there will be a speaker who will be announced later.

Nov. 26, the Wednesday before Thanksgiving, there will be a big open house planned for the "20 Up Club" of Royal Oak, and "The House in the Woods" of Lathrup Township.

That sounds like a full month for fun and pure enjoyment. See you tonight in the Ranch Room.

She was attended by Mrs. James W. Roberts, her sister, as matron of honor, whose gown was of American beauty velveteen, made with a square neckline, cap sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt, with a tiny bustle. She wore long gloves of matching velveteen and American Beauty ostrich tips in her hair. Her bouquet was a cascade arrangement of lavender aster chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Gerald B. Cooley, sister of the groom, and Miss Beverly Allen of Toronto.

Their gowns were of the same design as that of the matron of honor. Mrs. Cooley wore amethyst velveteen, with a bouquet of yellow aster chrysanthemums. Miss Allen's gown was of lime velveteen and her flowers were bronze chrysanthemums.
