Hospital Auxiliary Plans Annual Party

Mrs. E. A. Christie of Adams road will be the hostess Monday when the members of the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital of Pontiac Auxiliary hold their membership tea. Members will be present from Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Pontiac.

The past presidents of the auxiliary will preside at the tea table. The final plans for their Thanksgiving party are to be announced. Mrs. George Baldwin, Mrs. James Q. Goudie and Mrs. Allan Hamilton are in charge of the party which will be held in the hospital auditorium the evening of Nov. 17.

Membership Tea Held by Holy Name Group

Mrs. Thomas B. Doe, Jr., and Mrs. Earle Sutton presided at the annual membership tea of the Holy Name Parish Altar Society held last Monday in the Community House. The table was decorated with yellow candles and arrangement of yellow, orchid and chrysanthemums.

The table cloth was handmade by one of the elderly ladies in the St. Elizabeth's home.

The speaker of the afternoon was Frank J. Ortman of Detroit, who explained the new community property tax law. The ladies of the St. Hugo of the Hills parish were the guests of the Sodality.

St. Anne Guild to Have Annual Christmas Sale

Mrs. Paul E. Reed heads the committee which are in charge of the St. Anne's Guild annual doll tea and Christmas sale.

The event, this year, will be held in the Community House, on Friday afternoon, Nov. 14, from 2 to 5 o'clock. Due to the popularity of the sale, it has outgrown the private homes in which it has been previously held, and will now occupy two rooms at the Community House.

Mrs. Owen Luckenbach heads the guild, with Mrs. F. H. Hens as chairman of the ways and means committee. Mrs. E. W. Dare is chairman of the committee on dolls, with Mrs. E. E. Rothman in charge of the Easy-Knees footrests.

The source committee is headed by Mrs. C. Theron VanDusen; little boys' suits, Mrs. W. P. Heck; many children's dresses and slippers, Mrs. U. U. Woodhouse; pantry shelf, Mrs. Edward Tucker, Jr.; cards and stationery, Mrs. D. W. Bay.

Mrs. S. P. Patterson will preside over the treasure table, while Mrs. F. A. Farrell will have charge of the display of knitted goods for babies. The miscellaneous display will include needle books, book covers, card table covers, dusting mitts, towels, napkins, mittens and many other articles, and will be under the supervision of Mrs. Charles Renfrew.

The cashiers will work under the direction of Mrs. T. T. Freese, with Mrs. Norman James in charge of the check room. Mrs. H. E. Coen and Mrs. Howard Cousins have been appointed to have charge of the tea. The wrapping will be done by Mrs. W. Olson and the members of her committee.

This guild was formed about six years ago, and took the doll tea and Christmas sale as its annual project. It has grown almost beyond belief, and is now noted as one of the annual pre-Christmas events in Birmingham and vicinity.

The entire city looks forward to the sale, and is continually amazed at the wide variety of articles and the workmanship displayed. All items are made entirely within the guild membership, with no outside solicitations. Doll clothing, and that of small boys and girls, are frequently designed by members. Many of the dolls could be classed as collector's items.
