

High School Girls to Be Guests of Vassar Club Today

The Vassar Club of Birmingham is sponsoring a meeting this (Thursday) afternoon at 5:30 at which 50 girls from Baldwin and Barnum high schools will be present. The meeting will be highlighted by colored slides on Vassar, which will be shown by Miss Jane Lee Jackson, a recent graduate of the college.

She will speak on the life there, and will also conduct a question period, answering queries about entrance requirements and education in Eastern colleges for women.

Preceding the talk by Miss Jackson, the Vassar alumnae will hold a short business meeting and a reception for their guests.

The arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Winston Kellogg, Mrs. E. W. Higgins and Mrs. William E. Jackson. Mrs. Langdon Crane is in charge of the tea, and will be assisted by Mrs. Thomas Snelman, Mrs. William Essary and Miss Sally Booth.

Junior Woman's Club Plans Annual Bazaar

The junior department of the Birmingham Women's Club will meet Tuesday, Nov. 11, at the home of Mrs. Louis M. Randall, Jr., of Webster avenue.

A general meeting will be held and plans for the annual bridge tea and bazaar discussed. This event will be held at the Community House on Thursday, Dec. 4, with Mrs. Robert S. Clark in charge of the bazaar and Mrs. Randall of the tea arrangements.

Impressive Rites Mark Installation of Eastern Stars

The officers of Birmingham Chapter, 220, O.E.S., were installed last Wednesday evening in a very beautiful ceremony presided over by Mrs. Harry Sherwood, past matron, as mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Glenn Brown, past worthy grand matron, conducted the impressive installation ceremonies.

She was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Baynes, installing marshal; Mrs. Melvin Updegraff, installing chaplain and Mrs. Emil Olin, installing organist. Several appropriate vocal selections were sung by Victor Peck.

The retiring matron, Mrs. Ralph Main, thanked the officers and members for the support they have given her during the past year. She also presented a gift from her officers and a past matron's ring from the chapter. She was also presented with a white Bible and welcomed into the past matron's club.

club in a lovely ceremony given by members of the club.

The retiring patron, Alex Busby, was also presented a gift from the chapter by Ernest Morrow.

New Cavel Presented

The newly installed matron, Mrs. James Green, was presented with a bouquet of roses, with the presentation made by Mrs. Misses Thalia Main and Marjorie Potts as flower girls, after which she was escorted to her station by her two sons, James and Thomas.

She was also presented with a beautiful California redwood gavel, a gift from Leo Truax, formerly resident of Birmingham and member of the Chapter. The presentation was made by Mrs. Edwina Minks, who said that Mr. Truax had left it with her when he visited Birmingham in September. In addition that he would note his 80th birthday on Nov. 3, and suggested card shower by members of the chapter.

The matron responded and thanked all for their kindness.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room of the Masonic Temple.

The Rev. Werner Kuntz of Detroit, will speak on "Developments in the Program of the Lutheran Service Federation."

Final plans for the annual Christmas bazaar and luncheon will be made at the business meeting. The affair will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 3.

Mrs. Floyd Brown, Mrs. Herman Siebig and Mrs. Henry Gasaway are in charge of the meeting arrangements.

Daughter of Former Residents to Marry

Dr. and Mrs. Warren Potter Gibson of Ann Arbor, formerly of Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Lloyd Robert Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Smith of Linden Lake.

Miss Gibson was graduated from William Woods junior college, and later attended the University of Michigan, where she was affiliated with Alpha Phi sorority. Mr. Smith is a pre-medical student at the University of Michigan, after having served with the Naval Air Corps for over three years.

The wedding will take place Jan. 31, 1948.

Church Bazaar

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Redeemer Lutheran church will hold its regular monthly meeting this (Thursday) evening, beginning at 8 o'clock in the church lounge.

The Rev. Werner Kuntz of Detroit, will speak on "Developments in the Program of the Lutheran Service Federation."
