Observes 55 Years With Insurance Co.
Archie C. Utter, 372 Southfield road, associate general agent in Detroit for the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, will observe his fifty-fifth anniversary with the company this month. Long recognized as an outstanding figure in the life insurance field, Utter joined the company's Detroit general agency in November, 1892 as office clerk. In 1900 he went to the home office in Boston and served as assistant superintendent of agencies for four years. He then returned to Detroit as general agent for the state of Michigan in partnership with Albert R. Thomson, and became sole general agent in 1928. He was president of the company's General Agents' Association in 1914 and received the President's Trophy in 1936 for general excellence in agency operation.
