

Birmingham Boys In MSC's Walking Band

The auditions were held with Prof. Leonard C. Falone, director of the band. He said that, as in the past, the band would play at all home football games during the season, and that training has been resumed. The band will make one trip out of town when it plays at Temple University in Philadelphia. Prof. Falone will accompany the members.

Fairest in the Land

Barbara Jo Walker, Miss Memphis in the Atlantic City, N. J., beauty pageant, is now Miss America of 1947. The 5-foot 7-inch 21-year-old brunette also took talent division honors.

John F. Mathews to Play With Baltimore Symphony Orchestra

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton R. Mathews entertained at their home at Brown street at a dinner party Friday evening, honoring their son, John Fenton Mathews. Guests were present from Detroit, Cleveland and New York.

Young Mathews has left for the coming season with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. He is one of the youngest symphony players in the country and has won recognition from the foremost conductors of symphonic groups. Just past 21, he has already played with the Dallas and Seattle symphony orchestras, and has turned down an offer to join the Salt Lake City (Utah) Symphony as one of their principal musicians. He plans to visit friends in Cleveland enroute to his new post in Baltimore.

Hall of Fame--In Wax

These wax models of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth of England have an honored place in the Grevin Museum in Paris. Every year new additions are made to the collection, and figures which no longer "revere" are discarded. The museum is much like Madame Tussaud's wax gallery in London.

Club Notes

The Fidelis class of the Baptist church will meet with Mrs. Stewart Smith at her home at 1030 Clark street at 8 o'clock Monday evening. The devotional period will be directed by Mrs. Melvin Middlemich.

The Rev. James Wright, former chaplain with Patton's Sixth Armored division, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Birmingham MOMS club tonight (Thursday) in the Community House. His topic will be "Where Peace is Made."

Two divisions of the Birmingham Women's Club will meet Tuesday. The Literature department will meet at the home of Mrs. E. S. Clark on Oak street, where they will hear a talk by Walter Nickell. Mrs. E. A. Moore and Mrs. W. D. Brummett will address the American Home department, which will meet with Mrs. R. J. Hague of Lahser road.

Elizabeth L. White To Marry Saturday

Elizabeth L. White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. White, will become the bride of Alexander Marriot Walker Saturday afternoon.

The ceremony will be performed in the St. Dunstan's chapel of Christ Church Cranbrook by the Rev. Charles Cadigan, in the presence of the immediate families. Miss White's only attendant will be Miss Marion Montgomery of Chicago. Samuel A. Walker, Jr., will be his cousin's best man. A reception will be held immediately after the ceremony in the Parish House.

Miss White has been the honored guest at several showers during the past week, including those given by Mrs. Robert W. Chisum, Mrs. John Werner and Mrs. Robert Tipton.

Social Briefs

MRS. FRANK KURTZ of Brown street has as her houseguest Mrs. Herman B. Bendansen of Chicago.

MR. and MRS. RALPH WILSON of Chesterfield road are attending the National Retail Druggist's convention in Chicago this week.

MISS BARBARA TOLES who was called home to Birmingham by the death of her grandmother, Mrs. George W. Toles of Charlotte, returned by plane Monday night to Mary Washington college in Fredericksburg, Va., where she is a student.

Bridge Luncheon

The Birmingham members of the Women's Progressive Club of the Highland Park Y.W.C.A. will join with members of other cities next Thursday, when a benefit bridge luncheon will be held. Luncheon will be served at noon at the Highland Park "Y".

A special invitation is extended to newcomers in this area to meet with the club and become better acquainted. Reservations may be made until noon Tuesday by calling Mrs. Mabel Schultz, 4755 Walnut Lake road.

Kingswood Alumnae Make Holiday Plans

At a board meeting of the Kingswood Alumnae group held Tuesday night in the home of Betty Lee Hamilton of Lone Pine road, plans were discussed concerning the Kingswood-Cranbrook Alumni Holiday Dance. The dance will be held Saturday, Dec. 27 at the Hotel Statler.

Plans are being formulated for the annual Kingswood luncheon to be held during the Christmas holiday season. Those present at the meeting were: Mrs. Morgan Douglas Jr., president; Mrs. Maxwell E. Fend, vice-president; Mrs. William Rison, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Tucker, former president of the group; ex officio member of the board; other board members present were: Mrs. Gordon W. Wolf Jr., Maxine Appel, Nancy Loud, Mrs. Edward H. Lerchen.

Add New Books Each Day at AAUW's Sale

Starting their 20th annual book sale on Monday, members of the AAUW committee in charge report the sale of 1,000 books the first day. This is nearly one-third the entire total of the 1946 sale.

A new plan has been inaugurated this year whereby new books are added to the shelves every day, rather than the entire stock being displayed from the opening of the sale. There are many new books, as well as a good number of used volumes and magazines still available.

The sale room, located in the Detroit Edison building, will remain open until 9 o'clock Friday evening, with the same ending at noon on Saturday. All prices will be reduced one-half on Friday.
