

Detroit Policewoman to Discuss Her Work Before Church Group

Mrs. Frank Churchill of the Women's Division of the Detroit Police Department will be the guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Wesleyan group of the Methodist church on Tuesday.

They face daily. Their work differs greatly from that of a man, mainly because of the attitude the public has toward a feminine representative of the law. They are also asked to handle a great many cases which require a more personal touch and contact, in that they so frequently involve whole families as well as individuals.

Live Today!
How many, many times you hear the oft-expressed aims of those who live "in the future." All their being seems wrapped up in tomorrow to the virtual exclusion of today's happiness. Likewise, there are those who still live (or try to live) the yesterdays of life. Obviously, it is impossible either to recapture the latter or to fasten the former. Live TODAY! When we but stop and think about it there's nothing else to do but to agree with this bit of verse which we noticed on the back of a menu in a small northern Michigan inn:
Don't worry about the future;
The present is all that lasts;
The future will soon be present
And present will soon be past.
There is doubtless some object in our Shop which would mean much happiness if it were in your home TODAY!—perchance you have been waiting until tomorrow" before deciding to come in and get it. Isn't it wiser to enjoy it now—to Live TODAY?
