College Alumnae to Hold Membership Tea at Sappington Home

The annual fall membership tea of the University of Michigan alumnae group will be held Monday from 2 to 6 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington on Arlington drive. New members, which are being recruited at this time, will be welcomed. The organization, which has been quite inactive during the war years, is planning many activities that will be of special interest to U. of M. women throughout this section.

Mrs. Marcus E. Cunningham has an interesting program planned for the afternoon. Mrs. Stuart Baits, regent of the University of Michigan and Miss Alice Russell, the new executive chairman of the alumnae council, will take part. The plans of the coming year, which include a bridge party in November, will also be discussed.

The college colors, yellow and gold, will be the keynote of the table decorations. Mrs. Robert Andrews and Mrs. Ralph Scheel will pour.

The local alumnae officers are: Mrs. Cunningham president; Mrs. Scheel, vice-president; Mrs. Andrews, secretary and Mrs. Max B. Tunncliffe, treasurer. Board members include Mrs. Charles Aldrich, Mrs. W. Clifton Randall, Mrs. Robert Watt and Mrs. Hugh White.

Parents Announce September Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. William H. McMahon of East Maple road announce the marriage of their daughter, Mabel Ellen, to William Rubin, son of John Rubin of Royal Oak Township. The wedding took place on Thursday evening, Sept. 27 at the home of the Rev. W. O. Love in Hazel Park, who officiated.

The bride wore a light grey gabardine suit with white accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses and carnations. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Lou Crampton. The best man was Paul Lockhart of Ferndale.

A reception was held after the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rubin are now making their home in Norway, Mich.

Among the more recent meetings held was the tea held at the home of Mrs. John Lundberg, Mrs. Eleanor W. Gaffin, room hostess, and was assisted by Mrs. Lundberg and Mrs. Ralph Scheel. Mrs. E. K. Burg and Mrs. John Hammond poured.

Mrs. Cecelia Jelinik, fifth grade teacher, was present and led the discussion of the benefits which can be derived through the close cooperation of the PTA, faculty, members and the children, themselves.

Mrs. M. R. Andrehe entertained the mothers of the afternoon kindergarten at her home on Puritan street Tuesday. Mrs. Catherine Ivers assisted in serving the dessert luncheon.

Mr. James McDonald of Westwood street is entertaining the mothers of the children of the third grade at 10 o'clock, week fast today. Mrs. W. G. Busch will assist her.

Then for that big all important day of Halloween there is a Costume Party with games, cider and donuts. The exact date will be announced later.

Eleanor Ferris with her committee of Jim Auchterlonie and Millicent Tower are responsible for this month's activities. Don't you think they've done a grand job? We are still meeting every Tuesday and Thursday night.

Do you like to sing, girls? If you do there is a group meeting every Tuesday night from 7:30 to 9:00 in the basement of the Episcopal Church. Those who are interested in touch with Nell Wakefield, Shan Rosso is our director. You can come and still get to the Ranch Room in time.

Church Groups Plan Dinner and Bazaar

The various women's societies of the First Methodist church will hold their regular monthly meetings on Wednesday, Oct. 22. Mrs. W. G. Sloat of 5784 Inkster road will be the hostess for the Sara Allen group with Mrs. F. Falter serving the luncheon. The Hattie Evans group will meet at the home of Mrs. Mark Frank, 440 Chesterfield road, where the luncheon arrangements will be in charge of Mrs. Ward Folsom.

Mrs. Melvin Hart will be in charge of the luncheon when the Mary Utter society meets at the home of Mrs. O. E. Hasecall. Mrs. Newell Allen will open her home at 426 Park street for the meeting of the Kate Wagner group. The luncheon will be served by Mrs. Dwight Baldwin and her committee. The Susanna Wesley group will meet with Mrs. Amos Gregory at 1216 Donchester road, and will have Mrs. Wylie Groves in charge of luncheon.

All will work and plan for the annual bazaar and dinner which they will sponsor on Nov. 6.

AAUW Fetes New Members, Guests At Luncheons

Twenty new members and guests were present at the luncheon of the American Association of University Women held at the Community House.

An informal arrangement of small groups for the dessert tea, held before the meeting was arranged by Mrs. John A. Gilray, Jr., and Mrs. Carl Binkle. A hostess with some member of the board and hospital committee serving at each table. Mrs. W. K. Carter and Mrs. Ralph Beebe poured.

At the business meeting, Mrs. William K. Carter, AAUW president, explained the educational purposes of the association and its aims. Mrs. W. Seven, chairman of the policy committee gave her report and also spoke of the by-laws. The program chairman, Mrs. F. B. Mahon, outlined, briefly, the plans that have been made for future meetings.

On Tuesday, Mrs. L. D. Stauffer entertaining the members of the membership committee at a luncheon held at the Orchard Lake Country Club. Among those present were Mesdames Robert Kohr, Robert Davis, Glen M. Davis, J. J. Bruyn, Jr., W. K. Carter, W. Blennan, Ralph Scheel, O. L. Beardsley, Madison Fowler, L. C. Good and Miss Shirley Hersey.

Plans were discussed for the series of teas which will be given in the near future for new members.

Quartern Program Gets Under Way

The get-acquainted schedule of the Quartern PTA has gotten under way with several meetings having already been held and more scheduled for the near future. The plan was for each room meeting to entertain the members of that particular room and grade. In an effort for them to become better acquainted personally, and to give them a chance to discuss school affairs to the mutual advantage of all concerned.

Players Group Opens 25th Season With Mystery Play

The Birmingham Village Players will open their 25th season on Oct. 24, and 25 when they will present "Suspect," written by Edward Percy and Reginald Denham. The play has been in rehearsal for the past four weeks under the direction of George M. Dweley, with Mrs. Harris G. Machus as assistant director. Mrs. G. S. Gove is serving as prompter while Mrs. Richard W. Wenzel is in charge of properties.

Mrs. Paul Averill has painted the huge background, 10 feet by 20 feet, for this play, depicting an oceanic vista with a rocky coastline and a foreground of ferns, underbrush and rustic fences. The work which Mrs. Averill has prepared adds to the sinister atmosphere which prevails as the plot of the play unfolds.

The leading role of "Mrs. Smith" is played by Mrs. George M. Dweley, with John A. Gilray as her son and Miss Gay Carey as his part of the girl's father. Others in the supporting cast are J. Truman Strong and Mrs. Raymond, friends of the family; Thomas H. Adams, clergyman and Mrs. Joseph E. de Bruyn, a Scotch servant.

Build Own Sets

Perhaps one of the most outstanding features of the Village Players is the fact that they always design and build their own sets. Mrs. Thomas H. Adams has designed the sets for "Suspect," with the erection and painting being done by the scenery committee which is headed by James S. Hodges, Jr., and Gordon H. Baker. Sidney Goldberg, Joseph E. de Bruyn, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hancoff Jr., Mrs. Thorndyke Dweley, Harris G. Machus, Mr. and Mrs. William Breech, Katherine Hunt, Mrs. Philip Carey, William Howell, Joan Stone, Mrs. George Broesch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blunt, William J. Lambert, Mrs. Richard Stewart, Dannel Matthews and Nancy Hart also served on the scenery committee for "Suspect."

The stage committee is in charge of William E. Kegal, and includes Hans Scholin, Thorndyke Dweley, E. Allen Aikens, Wallace K. Ivers, Robert C. Wyatt, Benjamin Brewster, Fred D. Knoblock, Robert Porter, Harold E. Towne, Charles Burgess and Richard Stewart. These members will also be in charge of back-stage affairs on the two presentation nights.

The lighting effects will be handled by Richard W. Brown, Blaine Eymon, Raymond Amerman and Charles W. Brantley. Mrs. Lane B. Bishop will have charge of make-up and will be assisted by Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Mrs. Warren Pease, Mrs. Walter Skinner, Mrs. Elliot W. Higgins and Mrs. James S. Hodges, Jr.

PRIVATE BANQUET ROOMS FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE

By Jean Gibbs

Officers have been working very hard this past week to get things started and here are just a few of the ideas they have come up with: Let's all keep Thursday October 23 free for the big hay ride, everybody is welcome to come stag or drag at $1.00 per person. Those wishing to go meet at the Community House at 8:30. Refreshments will be served after we get back.

Then for that big all important day of Halloween there is a Costume Party with games, cider and donuts. The exact date will be announced later.
