

Do you not agree that the attribute of being able to perform the promise of your neighbor is a precious quality? What if he is to receive a more appointment, or a legal contract, or is able to depend upon another's word as a source of personal treasure.

SEVENTIETH YEAR—NO. 28—18 Pages

BIRMINGHAM, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1947

$2.00 PER YEAR (In Oakland County)—SINGLE COPIES, 6c

THE BIRMINGHAM POST-HERALD

By G. R. A.

Asks Revision Of Various Zoning Curbs

Hamper Efforts of Professional Men, Attorney Charges

To determine whether present Birmingham zoning classification needs clarification or modification in view of possible new factors which have been introduced, city commissioners Monday evening directed the planning commission to review the present code and make suggestions or recommendations.

State Mental Hospitals

Perhaps you are one who has been reading about the State of Michigan's mental hospital problems, and the interest of the Slater administration in trying to improve that situation.

Plans for Coming Year Discussed by PTA Council

There are approximately 22,000 households in the State of Michigan; there are housed in inadequate buildings, with not enough teachers and attendants to provide the best care for them.

Driving Course for School Pupils

A student driving course will become part of the Birmingham school's regular curriculum in a few weeks after final arrangements are made by the Board of Education to work it into the schedule.

For Emergency Fire, City Will Get Aid from Detroit Dept.

Should the need ever arise, Birmingham will receive aid in the form of trucks and manpower from the Detroit Fire Department upon the request of the Birmingham fire chief.

Mallender Will Not Seek Re-election

Commissioner Milton F. Mallender this week made public the statement that he will not be a candidate for re-election when his present term expires in April, 1949.

Elect Dr. Kelley As President of Community Council

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Community Council held last Monday morning in the Community House, Dr. Earl C. Kelley of Wayne University, and local resident, was elected president.

Local Lions Club Host to Visitors

Twenty-five presidents and secretaries of the Lions Clubs of the area met at the Community House for a dinner meeting Monday evening.

Whenever you're "in the dark" about something — confused — uninformed — what better authority can you turn to than your newspaper! It gives you the facts about international, national and local happenings. It gets into your home and very heart with special features. And its available merchandise and prices. Editorially, your newspaper is always ready for a good fight — in democracy's behalf — an unwavering champion of your interests. Read it, respect it, enjoy it.

THIS IS NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK

OCTOBER 1-8

Plan Exhibitions at Maple Games

Birmingham's future athletes turned out in force to greet their respective coaches at Adams, Bloomfield Village, Quanton, and Pierce schools last Saturday.

Two House Fires Are a Result of Current Cold Snap

This week's cold weather actually had something to do with two fires that occurred last Saturday and Sunday.

Fumbles, Napping Pass Defense Permit Farmington to Down Maples, 12 to 7

A severe case of fumbleitis with an added touch of propelling leather proved to be too much for the Maple gridmen as they bowed to Farmington, 12-7, at Pizco Field last Friday night.

Complete Long Pass Midway in Third Quarter

The home defense opened the contest by roasting down the field with razzle-dazzle ground forays.

Check Homes to Eliminate Fire Hazards

City Prepares to Cooperate in Fire Prevention Week

As the nation and Birmingham prepare to observe Fire Prevention Week which begins next Sunday, Oct. 5, and continues through the 11th, the local fire department calls upon all citizens to join in the annual city-wide drive against fire.

Local Y Funds to Come from Detroit Drive

After several weeks of negotiations, Robert H. MacRae, executive secretary of the Detroit Community Chest, and Dr. John K. Ormond, chairman of the Birmingham YMCA Committee of Management, announced Monday that the local branch has been admitted to membership in the Metropolitan Red Feather Society.

Troop B-1 Awards Life Scout Rank to Two Members

Members of Boy Scout Troop B-1 held their annual Fall Court on Monday evening at the Birmingham Junior High School on Monday evening.

Shain Appoints Committees for Halloween Party

Plans for Birmingham's annual Halloween Party—in which the whole community participates—will be completed this week, after when General Chairman Charles J. Shain appointed committee chairmen and designated various community organizations to take charge of certain party responsibilities.

Third Site for Bus Garage Sought by School Board

Construction of the Board of Education's proposed bus shelter will be completed Tuesday evening when board members are expected to search further for a bus garage site.

Parking Ordinance Hearing Monday

Birmingham's proposed off-street parking ordinance will be up for a hearing before the city commission next Monday evening, Oct. 6.

Community House Dance

Whitney will arrange with the city for the huge tent on the Hill School recreation area, and Halcum Ferguson, Pierce School principal, will head the committee from the Exchange and Jaycee organizations which will provide the ticket distribution committee, and the Birmingham Theater.

OK Police Survey

The cities of Royal Oak, Berkley and Pleasant Ridge have indicated they will join Birmingham in the proposed survey of their respective police departments administratively in a procedure managed by Commissioner Donald C. Egbert today.

School Board Keys $8,829,350 Budget for Coming Year

Birmingham school district taxpayers will be charged with providing $646,068.67 in tax revenue to provide for school operating costs for 1947-48, according to the final budget approved by the Birmingham Board of Education Tuesday evening.

Local Y Funds to Come from Detroit Drive

After several weeks of negotiations, Robert H. MacRae, executive secretary of the Detroit Community Chest, and Dr. John K. Ormond, chairman of the Birmingham YMCA Committee of Management, announced Monday that the local branch has been admitted to membership in the Metropolitan Red Feather Society.

Troop B-1 Awards Life Scout Rank to Two Members

Members of Boy Scout Troop B-1 held their annual Fall Court on Monday evening at the Birmingham Junior High School on Monday evening.

Shain Appoints Committees for Halloween Party

Plans for Birmingham's annual Halloween Party—in which the whole community participates—will be completed this week, after when General Chairman Charles J. Shain appointed committee chairmen and designated various community organizations to take charge of certain party responsibilities.

Third Site for Bus Garage Sought by School Board

Construction of the Board of Education's proposed bus shelter will be completed Tuesday evening when board members are expected to search further for a bus garage site.

Parking Ordinance Hearing Monday

Birmingham's proposed off-street parking ordinance will be up for a hearing before the city commission next Monday evening, Oct. 6.

Community House Dance

Whitney will arrange with the city for the huge tent on the Hill School recreation area, and Halcum Ferguson, Pierce School principal, will head the committee from the Exchange and Jaycee organizations which will provide the ticket distribution committee, and the Birmingham Theater.

OK Police Survey

The cities of Royal Oak, Berkley and Pleasant Ridge have indicated they will join Birmingham in the proposed survey of their respective police departments administratively in a procedure managed by Commissioner Donald C. Egbert today.

Marie Antoinette Was Right—We Should Eat 'Cake'

When told that the French people did not have enough bread to eat, Marie Antoinette made that classic remark, "Let them eat cake."

Local Lions Club Host to Visitors

Twenty-five presidents and secretaries of the Lions Clubs of the area met at the Community House for a dinner meeting Monday evening.

INSURE NOW

TUGGERS 412, 2nd Ave. S. Security—The Nation's Watchdog.