Woman's Club to Hear Address by W. K. Von Weiler

The opening meeting of the Birmingham Women's Club will be held Oct. 7 at the Baldwin Library when William K. Von Weiler will be guest speaker.

Von Weiler came to this coun-

William K. Von Weiler

try in 1923 and has since made his home here. He is engineering supervisor for the American Associated Insurance Companies and is also an attaché of the Netherlands Consulate in Detroit, as well as being the representative of the Netherlands Chamber of Commerce for the State of Michigan.

He will speak on "The Netherlands and her Colonies," stressing present conditions in Indonesia and post-war conditions in the Netherlands. His lecture will be illustrated by pictures on Holland and the Dutch East Indies and a color film, "Holland Blooms Again."

Mrs. Z. M. Bricker, newly installed president, will preside over the meeting and Mrs. Arthur C. Peck, program chairman, will introduce the speaker.

The executive board, with Mrs. Miles Robinson as chairman, will be hostesses at the tea which will be given at the close of the program.

Canay

The convivial husband had a friend to stay with him for the week end. As the guest was being shown his room, he noticed faint crosses on several of the stair steps, and asked the reason.

"Ah," whispered the host, "these come into operation after midnight. X means 'that the steps creaks.'"

Plan Program for Children's Theater

Mrs. Gilbert Gove entertained the members of the Children's Theater committee at the Orchard Lake Country Club last Friday.

Mrs. James Abbott, Mrs. Stanley Saunders, Mrs. T. Hollister Mabey, Mrs. Harry Gruber, Mrs. George Green, Mrs. Stanley Hood and Mrs. William Milligan were present to discuss the plans of this, the fourth season for the group.

The Children's Theater is one of the projects of the American Association of University Women, who produce plays for the entertainment of Birmingham children. It is planned to have three plays during the coming year. One will be presented by the Wayne University women, while, as yet, no definite decision has been made regarding the third presentation.

Mrs. William Milligan will open her home at 454 Fairfield road on Monday, Oct. 20, when a meeting will be held to establish a working committee. This group will study and analyze children's plays as well as study make-up and stage settings. It is open to any Birmingham woman who is interested in children and their dramatic efforts, whether or not the member of the A. A. U. W.

YOU: reflected in the Stationery you use

- ✓ In its size;
- ✓ Its color and shade;
- ✓ The monogramming, or Style of engraving;
- ✓ The color of ink.

YOUR STATIONERY: Have you ever paused to consider how very personal it is? Thoughtfulness demands that you do so, for your stationery is a part of you: reflected!

The right stationery is dependent on several little things: all of them important. Are you young, or older? Is your handwriting small, medium or large? Is it cryptic, flowing—or do you typewrite your letters? Is your tendency toward formality or verve? You see, all these factors deserve consideration, and stationery chosen accordingly means stationery that becomes your personality, stationery with which you will "be yourself."

Letters are so important that this deserves leisurely attention. In our comprehensive stationery division there is awaiting just the right selection in order that YOU are reflected in the letters you write.
