Detroit Bride of Paul Stocker

Before a host of friends, Miss Aileen Walton Armour of Detroit became the bride of Paul A. Stocker of Birmingham Friday evening. The ceremony was performed in St. John's Episcopal church by the Rev. Irwin C. Johnson.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Maida Walton Atkinson of Chicago, and was given in marriage by her nephew, Arthur S. Atkinson. The best man was Oscar Stocker of New Haven, Conn., brother of the groom.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the Harmonie Club in Detroit, after which Mr. and Mrs. Stocker left for a wedding trip to Bermuda. Upon their return, about Nov. 1, they will make their residence in Birmingham.

Double Christening at Christ Church

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene of a double christening Sunday, when Catherine Leigh Hills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hills, and William Drek Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar H. Adams were christened by Dr. Charles H. Cadigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams were sponsors for the Hills baby, while her parents were sponsors for the little Adams boy.

Mrs. William Drea, mother of Mrs. Adams, was present for the ceremony, coming from her home in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Mrs. Oscar Winchell, only registered nurse in a 600-square-mile area around McGrath, Alaska, tends to the sick by plane.

Engaged

Lee Shattuck Pearson

The engagement of Miss Lee Shattuck Pearson to Walter Perry Stinson was announced Sept. 22 when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Ford Pearson, held open house at their home on Mehegan drive.

Tiny figures of "Tuckie" and Walter, along with wedding bells, silver crescent moons and beautiful flowers, adorned the tea table at which Mrs. George Finch, Mrs. Charles Renfrew, Sybil Finch and Elaine Smith, all of Birmingham, assisted.

Miss Pearson attended Baldwin High School and Michigan State College. Mr. Stinson, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Stinson of Sylvan Village, served for three years with a medical unit in Iraq. At present he is completing his studies at Michigan State. Plans for the wedding are still incomplete.

AAUW Book Sale Plans Completed; to Meet Wednesday

The Birmingham Branch of the A.A.U.W. will hold an informal dessert meeting at the Community House on Wednesday at 1 o'clock. Reports of the state meeting and those of members of the board will be given.

This is the final meeting of the group before the annual book sale, which will be held in the Detroit Edison building from Oct. 13 to 18. Final plans will be discussed at this time, and members are expected to bring early contributions of books, magazines, records and other articles which will be placed on sale.

Mrs. Hans Schjoen, general chairman of the sale, announces that it has created an even wider interest this year than in the year past, and in all probability will break the 1946 record when 3,200 books, 1,000 magazines, as well as many miscellaneous articles, were sold.

The committee chairman who will work on the sale are Mrs. Forbes Hascall, sales; Mrs. W. G. Patton, marking; Mrs. Joseph Williams, solicitations; Mrs. Richard W. Brown, transportation; Mrs. Harvey J. Farrest, equipment and Mrs. William Kegel, salvage.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Carl B. Marr, Mrs. Carl Birkie, Mrs. John A. Gilray, Jr., Mrs. J. R. Buchanan and Mrs. Merton J. Bell.

Musicale Will Feature Soloists in Oct. 9 Concert

The Birmingham Musicale will open its fall season on Thursday, Oct. 9, with an outstanding program, featuring two soloists, Mrs. Nioma Kelly Sherman, vocalist, and eleven-year-old Shirley Seguin, pianist.

Mrs. Sherman, who is a member of the quartette at St. James Episcopal Church, received her early musical education at Central Michigan College, and for several years has been a voice student of Frederick Froehner.

Shirley, who has appeared with the University of Michigan Orchestra, has been studying piano since she was five years old with Marion Hahn, staff member of the Beethoven School of Piano in Detroit. She is gifted with perfect pitch and is an excellent sight reader with unusual speed and agility. Since a small child, when she would line up her dolls and give recitals for them, music has been her great love. At this musicale she will offer selections from Beethoven, Mendelssohn, Mozakowski, Chopin and Debussy.

Mrs. Earl Bartholomew, the recently elected president, will open the meeting promptly at 2 o'clock, with Mrs. James Moon as chairman of the day. Stage managers for this program are Mrs. Myron Snyder and Mrs. Elliott Kinney.

Mrs. George Finch, hostess chairman, will have her committee, Mrs. Hoyt Gilbert, Mrs. Elmer Gove and Mrs. Shelton Wright present.

Mrs. Elmore T. Wollering heads the hostess committee for the year, assisted by Mrs. Carroll Otto, Mrs. H. G. Wood, Mrs. Glen Davis, Mrs. J. Hogan, Mrs. John S. Gordon, Mrs. Hilmar Carlson and Mrs. Richard O. Mead.

Mrs. Lewis Sappington, Mrs. E. H. Gardner, Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond and Mrs. D. L. Tate will preside at the tea table and Mrs. Earl G. Potter and others of the membership committee will receive new members.

CLUB 1930

By Jean Gibbs

The season opened with great enthusiasm on the part of new and old members. On September 9, opening night, Miss Will conducted a business meeting at which a great many questions were decided. The following members were elected to lead our organization: president, Louis Corrie, vice-president, Bob Clements; secretary, Marguerite Kurth; treasurer, Nell Wakefield. These officers will meet monthly to appoint committees to handle the succeeding month's activities.

It was voted that the yearly membership dues would be $2.50, and non-members 25c per night. Membership cards will be issued when dues are paid.

Come and meet the gang down in the Ranch Room and join in all the planning and fun.
