Localites To Play At Maria Montana Concert

Maria Montana world-famous American soprano, will be the featured soloist at the program being given next Wednesday evening for the Save the Children Federation. She will be assisted by Miss Janet Fossenkemper, youthful violinist and student at Kingswood school.

Miss Fossenkemper has appeared locally as guest soloist of the Birmingham Musicals. Robert Bates, pianist and organist of Cranbrook will also appear on the program as accompanist. Mr. Bates is assistant director of the Detroit Orpheus club and organist of the Kirk of the Hills, newly organized Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Dudley M. Blakely is general chairman. She has announced that Miss Montana's program will be based on a "One World" theme, and will bring to Birmingham the songs of many European countries, stressing the fact that human fellowship is expressed through music in the same manner, regardless of nationality.

She is being assisted by Mrs. James F. Mitchell, Mrs. Edward Mathieu, Mrs. Whiting Raymond, Mrs. Rudolf E. Eech, local president of the SCF, Mrs. Angus D. McRay, Mrs. Frederic W. Sevin and Mrs. Joseph E. DeBruyn. Mrs. Sevin was hostess at the final committee meeting.

Mrs. DeBruyn, head of the committee to select ushers for the concert, has picked young musicians from the various junior musical groups in Birmingham. Miss Josephine Connor has been named to act as chairman of this group, and will be assisted by the Misses Elizabeth Henshaw, Melling Chapman and Roberts Connor of the Junior Musicals; Frank Perkins, Bill Reid, John Sheldon, Charles Burnham and Tom Wyles of the Classical Music club. The latter will also assist with the lighting arrangements.

Tickets are being sold by members of the Birmingham Musicals and the Federation. Serving for the former organization is Mrs. Earl Bartholomew, president, Mrs. P. H. Mellinger, Mrs. H. E. Tugger, Mrs. H. H. Gardner and Mrs. Lewis Sappington. Mrs. Joseph L. A. Bennett of the Pontiac Tuesday Musicals, is in charge of ticket sales for that area.

Members of the Federation who will serve in this capacity are: Mrs. Robert Hatt, Mrs. Robert Schilling, Mrs. Herbert Fisher, Mrs. Anstole Watters, Mrs. John Oiler, Mrs. Norman Lyle, Mrs. Graham Shinnick, Mrs. Walter Ross, Mrs. F. C. Garrison and Mrs. P. H. Pritz. Mrs. Pritz is also in charge of publicity.

Mrs. John Cavan, newly elected president of the Royal Oak branch of the Save the Children Federation will be in charge of ticket sales for that area.

Mrs. Blakely stated that the Musicals and the SCF had been singularly fortunate in securing Miss Montana. Her concert career is among the most brilliant of modern vocalists and she is known throughout the world for her marvelous voice and her mastery of it. She is donating her services to this worthy cause.

Miss Montana has seen the European countries and is fully aware of the conditions that exist there so far as the children are concerned. What she saw moved her deeply enough that she has built up a special program for her appearance here.

Miss Fossenkemper, daughter of Marius Fossenkemper who is concert master of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, is a student of Joseph Gingold, now with the Cleveland Symphony.

Sponsors Named For Grade Dance Classes

Mrs. Basil Brown announces that her dancing classes, held on alternate Tuesdays at the Community Homes, have opened their fall season.

The sixth grade class is sponsored by Mrs. Richard Scalap, Mrs. Forrest Hubert and Mrs. Colin Campbell. Sponsors of the seventh grade class are Mrs. Preston Weir and Mrs. Cassius L. Miller.

The first meeting of the junior assembly will be on Friday, with Mrs. B. A. Aikens, and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster as sponsors. Plans have been made and the orchestra engaged for their formal Christmas dance.

New Program Starts

An after-the-game program has been started at the Orchard Lake Country Club, which will feature a cocktail hour, buffet dinner and dancing.

This Saturday, when Michigan meets Minnesota at Ann Arbor, all club members are invited to come directly from the game to the club, where continuous entertainment will be provided from arrival until departure. The management stresses that these weekly affairs are to be very informal and that no reservations will be necessary.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnston of Flint are the parents of a son born October 8, named Edward Lynn. Mrs. Johnston was the former Verla Devitt of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lowman of 156 Oakland avenue announce the birth of a daughter, Jayne LaValle on Oct. 11, at St. Joseph hospital in Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Stanley, Jr., of Los Angeles, announce the birth of a daughter, Handie Sue, on Oct. 6. They were former residents of Birmingham.

'Ma Cherie' Dress

It's the "Ma Cherie" dress, with petticoat an inch below the new long hemline. Chicago fashion experts predict return of "Gay 90's" petticoats, so this American innovation will be down to Paris to astound originators of new long-skirt styles. Jurja Powers models it.

Joins Canter Club

The sports association of the University of Texas has released the name of Phyllis Keenan of Pligim road, as one of its 156 co-eds admitted to membership in one of its ten sports clubs. Miss Keenan, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Keenan, has always been interested in riding, and has done a great deal of it locally.
