Jensen-Phillips Vows Solemnized In New Jersey Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Jensen of Kansas road have returned from Millington and Morristown, N. J., where they attended the wedding of their son, Walter A.

Mrs. Walter Jensen Jensen and Miss Dorothy Jean Phillips. The single-ring, candle-light ceremony was performed on Oct. 4 in the chapel of St. Peter's Cathedral in Morristown, by the Rev. Raymond William Davis. The bride, daughter of John B. and the late Mrs. Phillips, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin which was made with long sleeves, sweetheart neckline and a full skirt. Her long court train was of illusion lace and was held in place by a Juliette cap of braided illusion and seed pearls. She carried her mother's white prayer book, which was adorned with a single white rose. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Committees Named by Franklin's PTA Head Mrs. Irwin White has been named president of the newly formed Franklin school PTA. The other staff members for the coming year will be C. H. Dixon, vice-president; Mrs. John Hill, secretary; William Maloney, treasurer and Mrs. B. Harris, historian. The club was formed and held its first meeting on Sept. 29 when Mrs. White was named president. At the committee meeting she called last week, these officers were appointed: Mrs. T. Rish, program; Mrs. E. Lewis, membership; Mrs. J. Graham, publicity; and Mrs. Maloney, chairman of room mothers. The next meeting will be held Monday evening, when Dr. Dwight B. Ireland will speak on the Birmingham school system.

Have You Read: HOUSE DIVIDED, Ben Ames Williams ($1.00) First on Detroit's list of best sellers. This thoughtful novel of our civil war from the southern point of view, chiefly Virginia, is hard to put down. PROUD DESTINY, Lion Feuchtwanger, ($1.00) High drama, intellectual substance, and imagination make this story of the days of Louis XVI one of the outstanding historical novels. BISHOP'S MANTLE, Agnes Sigh Turnbull ($3.00) This absorbing novel about a young minister of our civil war will restore your faith in goodness and moral courage. SO DEAR TO MY HEART, Sterling North ($2.75) Reminiscences of a boyhood in Indiana done with real skill and artistry. A book to enjoy. DIRTY EDDIE, Ludwig Bemmelens ($2.75) For those moments when a good laugh is called for, it's Bemmelens at his witziest, on Hollywood. SPEAKING FRANKLY, James F. Byrne ($1.00) You've read and heard about this. A book one should own in the discussion group.
