Theodosia Thompson Honored at College

Miss Theodosia Thompson, who is attending the Boston School of Occupational Therapy, has been elected president of its junior class. She has also been placed on the Dean's List there as well as Tuft's College where she is working for the Bachelor degree in science.

Miss Thompson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Thompson of Bloomfield Hills, is serving on the intercollegiate council, and as vice-president of the Outing Club, a group of students from neighboring colleges and universities who have banded together for week ends of hiking, camping and skiing.

WITH THE COLLEGIANS

James Holmes, a student at Ohio Wesleyan University, has been pledged to Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Perry Holmes of Fairfax street.

John Kuhlman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie A. Kuhlman of Haynes street, has been accepted for membership in the chapter of Phi Delta Theta at Alma College. He is a sophomore there, majoring in economics.

Eta Sigma Phi, honorary classical fraternity of Lehigh University at Bethlehem, Pa., has named Kenneth F. Spoor as its corresponding secretary.

Miss Mary Cucchi served as chairman of the finance committee for the Sophomore Cotillion at St. Mary's College, Notre Dame last Friday. This annual affair was held in the Louis XIV ballroom.

Edward F. Batty, a graduate of Baldwin high school, is among the 1,500 new students of Kent State University in Kent, Ohio. Batty is majoring in business administration. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Batty of Yorkshire road.

Reception For Newcomers To Feature Dance Theme

Give a jolly jostling, may have taken the last stretch out of ballroom dancing, but the witting process and address have not been when "ragging" and "the walk" and a step called the "bunny hug" made headlines.

Newcomers to Birmingham, some three hundred of them, and members of the board of the Community House, will witness a "Cavalcade of Dancing" by Arthur Murray professionals as entertainment at the November 6 newcomers reception, at the Community House.

Some early assaults on ballroom decorum will be demonstrated at the reception and after the professional dancing for its guests will receive the popular modern steps. Music for both events will be supplied from the pianos of Robert Bates and Gordon Saunders.

Varied Displays
 The Community House will demonstrate as many of its normal activities as possible for its guests and several organizations which regularly use the Community House for their work or programs. Craft shops in operation will be opened to the guests.

Many new arrivals to Birmingham have participated in the planning for the newcomers reception under the chairmanship of Mrs. Howard J. Liverance. His assistants are: Mrs. Cheron Van Dusen, Mrs. Harold Compton and Mrs. Paul B. Hoffman, program and refreshments; Mrs. Cassius L. Miller, Mrs. John S. Hart, Mrs. Owen Hendren and Mrs. Harry Hopp, invitations; Mrs. J. Rowland Quinn, Mrs. George Winchold, Mrs. Thomas McDonald and Mrs. Harold A. Cousins, hospitality and Mrs. R. E. Pienko, Mrs. H. L. Clary, Mrs. Charles Woodson and Mrs. Ira Grinnell, display and craft demonstration.

Invitations have been issued to more than 350 new arrivals to Birmingham, but the committee chairman points out that all newcomers are invited and any who names and addresses have not been available to the committee so that invitations might be sent them, are urged to come to the reception and make themselves known to the hospitality chairman or members of that committee.

Newcomers On Committee
 Newcomers who have been attending the regular Newcomers luncheons at the Community House will help the hospitality committee. This group held a luncheon on October 25, for which Mrs. Harry Hopp was chairman. It was attended by 55 women who heard Miss Madeline Cox, fashion director for J. L. Hudson discuss fashion trends and changes. The next lunch meeting of the group will be held November 29 and Mrs. Harold Compton will be chairman.

Meanwhile, Newcomers have organized a women's bowling team which will meet each Wednesday afternoon at 7 o'clock. Women who have signed up for bowling are Mrs. H. L. Clary, Mrs. W. A. Fielden, Mrs. J. A. Lewis, Mrs. O. B. Elms, Mrs. T. M. Adams, Mrs. J. V. Whitehouse, Mrs. Kingsley Purton, Mrs. Grant Bailey, Mrs. William Hinken, Mrs. John Gerard, Mrs. E. V. Garden Center Fair to Be Held on November 6

Plans are completed for the Detroit Garden Center fair which will be held in the Arabian room of the Tuller hotel Thursday, Nov. 6, beginning at 9 a. m. The committee in charge reports a number of articles have already been received for the various booths.

The Detroit Garden Center, the Women's National Park and Garden association holds membership here and helps in the support and maintenance of the center, and are contributing articles to the current fair. Mrs. John Knecht is the receiving chairman for local contributions.

Among the local women who will be working are Mrs. J. R. Ackerman, Mrs. William McCallum, Mrs. Knuehl, Mrs. Henry J. Beam, Mrs. Frank D. Webb and Mrs. Eli Alexander.

The Garden Center was founded in 1922 by the Garden Club of Michigan as a civic enterprise to bring garden lovers together and as a place where information and expert advice on gardens and gardening could be obtained by the public.

Since its founding it has occupied four headquarters, the present site being the "White House" on Belle Isle. It is open and offers free public service each day from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. except Sunday. The Esther Longway Horticultural Library is housed there and is available to anyone. Mrs. Carl Balzer is librarian. Mrs. G. L. Bouton, director, is also doing with expert advice on gardening and is available to anyone. Although the "White House" is provided by the City of Detroit, it is maintained by promotion drives, garden pilgrimages, and the fair.

St. James Women to Hear Detroit Pastor

The Women's Auxiliary of St. James church will hold its monthly luncheon meeting Wednesday, Nov. 6, at 1 o'clock.

The Rev. Austin J. T. Becker, Protestant chaplain of the juvenile court and assistant rector of the Mariner's Church in Detroit, will speak. He will tell of the juvenile court work of Mariner's church and the City Mission which is associated with it.

House Guest Feted

Miss Maria Montana, soloist the Save the Children Federation concert last night, is the house guest of Mrs. Joseph F. Coul of Beverly Hills.

Mrs. Coulter is entertaining this evening in her honor, among the invited guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf E. Koch, J. F. Koff, Mr. and Mrs. C. Chubbuck, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. B. Byrd and Mrs. A. T. Tug and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Flexico.
