NO FOOD STORE HAS MORE LOW PRICES... MORE DAYS A WEEK... THAN YOUR THRIFTY A&P!

Occasional low prices on a few items won't save you very much in the long run, but consistently low prices on many items will. That's why A&P keeps every price low every day by keeping operating expenses and profits low every day. And that's why there's no better place to cut your food bills. Stop in any time! Shop in any department! You're sure to save at A&P!

Delicious A&P Meats

Our meat merchandising policy is to make available to our customers the very best products obtainable. A&P's "Super-Right" meats are all U. S. Grade "Good" or "Choice." The finest you can buy. Due to current economic conditions, we have decided to add another type of meat to our line—"heavy calves." You will find the meat cuts from "heavy calves" to be tender and economical.

Needlework Guild Plans In-Gathering Breakfast Tuesday

Mrs. Phelps Newberry of Grosse Pointe, national first vice-president of the Needlework Guild of America, will be the guest of honor when the local branch has its annual in-gathering breakfast Tuesday morning at the Community House. Mrs. Carolyn Plumstead, Community House director, will be the guest speaker.

The event climaxes the activities of the Guild for the year, and assures the distribution of much needed clothing to local needy families, assistance to the Red Cross home service and to local hospitals. The work this year is under the direction of Mrs. Sterling Saunders.

Mrs. Fritz Hyde is general chairman of the 1947 in-gathering, and is being assisted by Mesdames Carl Underhill, Albert Rogers, Carl Whirl, E. J. Anderson, D. J. Bond, Oscar Bah, Robert Harsh, John Bagby, Clay Zinzer, Ernst Kern, Edward Proctor and Clemson Page.

Complete layettes for babies, including diapers, blankets, booties and shirts; socks, dusters, and clothing for children 6 to 14; house dresses slips and night-gowns for women and young girls and shawls for elderly ladies; and shorts and socks for men are among the articles most sought after this year. The donation of two of these articles, or a cash equivalent, will entitle any man, woman or child to membership in the Guild, "the Charity that helps other Charities."

The committee which is handling the sorting and packing is in charge of Mrs. Perry Williams. She will be assisted by Mesdames Tom Hubbard, Cornelius Harper, Richard Fall Flannery, Gray Muzzy and Miss Peggy Goddard.

The breakfast arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Benjamin Dwyer, including inviting guests to invited guests and the members. Decorations were in charge of Mrs. R. N. Woodruff.

Mrs. Holton Attends National Convention

Mrs. Lottie Holton, realtor associated with the Benjamin and Stephens, Inc. Co., will leave Detroit Sunday morning for San Francisco, where she will attend the convention of the National Real Estate Board. She will travel on the special train of Michigan realtors.

Their itinerary includes Chicago and New Orleans, where they will be entertained and taken on sight-seeing tours of famous old places with members of the New Orleans board as hosts. From there they go to Galveston, Houston and El Paso, and on into Mexico to Juarez. The next places visited will be Tucson and Phoenix, Ariz., and on through San Diego and Los Angeles to San Francisco, where they will arrive on Nov. 8.

All cities where they will visit are planning entertainment features for the various Michigan boards. The return trip will be started on Thursday, Nov. 13, taking in Yosemite National Park and the Grand Canyon. They will return to Detroit early the following week.

Barrett-Warren Wedding Saturday in Pontiac

Nearly 200 guests witnessed the wedding of Miss Margaret Jean Morrow to Warren J. Barrett in the First Assembly Church of God in Pontiac last Saturday evening. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. F. Thornton.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Morrow, wore in marriage a gown of fitted satin, made with a round yoke of illusion lace and a circular train. The gown had long, fitted sleeves and a circular train. The bride carried a crescent bouquet of white roses and chrysanthemums.

Her matron of honor, Mrs. Jack Douglas of Pontiac, wore a aqua taffeta gown. Miss Marion Fenner, a cousin of the bride, was dressed in a dusty rose gown. Both were fashioned with sweetheart necklines and short puff sleeves. The attendants both wore tiaras of velvet and ostrich plumes, and carried cascade bouquets of roses and chrysanthemums.

Ronald Smith of Birmingham and Calvin Landmesser of Big Beaver were the groomsmen, while the ring bearers were Curtis Stark of Ferndale and William Bawden of Waterford.

A reception was held in the Y.W.C.A. for 150 guests. The bride's mother was gowned in forest green with brown accessories and wore a corsage of bronze mums and talsman roses. Mrs. Barrett wore blue and white and black accessories, and a corsage of pink roses and mums.

The couple left on a wedding trip through Ohio. The bride selected a brown tweed suit with well fitting accessories and wore the rose corsage from her bouquet. Upon their return they will make their home in Ferndale.

'Y' Group Will See 'M'-Indiana Game

A group of 33 football fans will journey to Ann Arbor on November 8 to see the Wolverines tangle with Bo McMillin's Indiana aggregation. The Y-Beegees and Y-Shalans Clubs are sponsoring this trek and hope to make it an annual affair.

A few places are still open for those who care to attend. Details of cost, time of departure, transportation may be had by calling 124. It is a case of first come, first served; tickets are now at the "Y" office, Ed Kierbitz, local secretary said.

Catholic Women Will Hear F. J. Ortman

Frank J. Ortman of Detroit will address the meeting of the Holy Name Parish Altar Sodality when they hold their annual membership tea Monday afternoon at the Community House. Ortman will speak on the new "Community Property Tax Law." The Sodality has invited the ladies of the St. Hugo of the Hills parish to be their guests.

Mrs. Bernard Lourin will serve as chairman of the reception committee, and tea will be served in the Ruth Shain room after the meeting. The members of the St. Teresa Guild will act as hostesses, with Mrs. Arthur LaFave in charge.
