There never did, and never will exist anything permanently noble and excellent in the character which is a stranger to the exercise of resolute self-denial. —Sir Walter Scott

The shape of standard highway signs have a definite meaning; the National Safety Council says, for example, the top sign always is octagonal, and should be heeded even if the lettering is obscured.

Juniors Walk Off With Honors at Annual Field Day

By George Allen
The annual field day was held last week at Pierce Field with the junior class winning with 60 1/2 points, followed by the seniors with 49, and the sophomores with 30 1/2.
There were three main classifications to the field: parade, field events and cheering. Of these, only the parade was taken by the seniors.
In the parade the seniors constructed a train of wood and paper, and the students followed five abreast to represent the cars. The juniors had a frame of wood and cloth for a covered wagon and boys dressed like pioneers to represent the "Forty-niners" as they are the class of '49.
Some of the events were the tug-o-war for boys and girls, the wash-day marathon, three-legged race and egg throwing contest. All the events showed close spirit.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

Well, kids, this weekend started with a bang Friday afternoon at the East Detroit game where we saw Stan Smith, Dick Stoll, Boots Davis, Carolyn Cole, Helen Fleming, Jack Shensfield and Annie sneaking under the fence. We're so used to report that Annie got stuck and she's still trying to wriggle out; so she asked us to take over.
Once inside we joined Anita, footlocker, Shirley Burnett, Mary Ann Mulholland, Art Lake, Jerry Stotchkiss, Norm Goodard, Phil Savage, Joe Ross, Keith McIntire, Craig Ackerman and Al Wagner cheering the team on to another victory.
Not tiring of football, Dick Groves, Lee Daly, Chuck Murray, Bob Saffell, Pete Hartsuff, Bob Hardy, Bill Robertson and Dick Furton watched Port Huron ramble Ferndale, 28-6.
The Friday night show crowd included Carolyn Metzger, Walt Sodie, Marge Horne, Jim McCall, Henry Marz, Bob Fowler, Dick Isajon, Jack Fontaine and John McGinnis.
On Carol Peterson's front porch after the night waiting for C.T. A meeting to open were Chuck Baker, George Burdick, Pete Lile, John Wilson, Jerry O'Donnell and Bill Roualet. When the door finally opened, Sally Scott, Barb Hughes, Anne St. Denis, Barb Strehlow and Jo Dasher welcomed the boys.
At Betty Whitelaw's Saturday night Jim Anderson, Bill Downer, Sarah Brettingham, Jerry O'Donnell, Don Runkel, Jack Pomeroy, Nancy Fisher, Ruth Oldberg, Anne Tunnill, Charles and Charley Thomas, and Aaron talking and drinking cokes.
Enjoyable Hay Ride
Wandering out Franklin way to K.S.T.'s date meeting at Jim Esign's, we met Ginny Schaffer, Solie McGinnis, Sherrill Williams, Bob Webster, Carolyn Roseberry, Dale Pearson, Audrey Engel, Jim Peterson, Lynn Martin, Dave Walker, Marilyn McLaren, Tom Mills, Kay Hall, Jack Chritton and Janice Flemington. Later the crowd swarmed Wood's for a hayride.
At the same time, Jo McIntire was hostess to Tiara Club meeting. Grouped around Marilyn Blagman as the hypnotized Red Beanson were Darrell Kelly, Duke Layden, Dave Maylen, Nancy Guest, Ray Robertson, Bob Woodruff, Kay McDonnell, Phyl Morse, Betty Conrad, Sue Hershey, and Judy Henderson.
Well, that's all for this week, gang. See ya at the Port Huron game tonight. And remember, be good on Halloween.

Harriers Ready for State Meet

By Pete Abbrecht
Seeking Birmingham's first state cross country championship, the Maple Harriers will travel to Ypsilanti for the state run Saturday.
The Maples' chances of bringing back the trophy are aided by the fact that five of the boys who ran at state last year on the team which took second will compete again this year. They are Jim Anderson, Bill Hickman, Pete Abbrecht, George Allen and Jerry Neumann.
Anderson is the Maples' most improved runner, his only loss being to teammate Hickman in the Royal Oak contest. The other two competing Maples will be Stan Smith and John Lukins.
Birmingham's chief opponent will probably be Ypsilanti Central state champion for the last two years, and the team which nosed out the Maples for first place last year.

Berkley Defeats Barnum Team, 12-7

By Jim McCall
A rousing attack by Berkley high school trounced Barnum 12-7 last week at Pierce Field in a first game.
Barnum pulled ahead in the night half when Chuck Ganely shook his way 65 yards through the Berkley backfield for the Maples' lone tally. Tom Tracy's place kick proved setting the Maroon 7-0.
The Berkley 11 came in the last quarter when Sweet flipped the spheroids to Jim Neolan for his first score. Recovering Berkley Sweet went across for his own completed pass. Neolan while set up the touch making the final score 12-7.

Music Club Attends Saturday Concert of Detroit Symphony

The Baldwin Music Club had a busy week end due to the fall concert season. Since a group planned to hear the Chicago Symphony under Arthur Rodzinski at the regular meeting for that evening was held Friday night at the home of John Hanson, 312 Aspen.
Selections played at the meeting included the "Gayne Ballet Suite," by Kiba-Ghatruan, "The Sorcerer's Apprentice," by Dukas and the first piano concerto and second of "Little Russian Symphony" of Tchaikovsky.
The program of the Chicago Symphony included "Toccata and Fugue in D Minor" by Bach; Brahms' "Symphony Number 1 in C Minor, Opus 68"; the suite from the "Ballet-Appalachian Spring" by Aaron Copland, and the second series of orchestral fragments from "Daphnis and Chloe" by Maurice Ravel.

Team Loses Close Meet to Lincoln

By Phil Allen
Putting on plenty of kick in the last quarter mile, Jim Anderson, Birmingham, took first place and set a new record for the Lincoln Park cross country course at the Birmingham Harriers' meet, the meet, 27-28.
The rest of the team did exceptionally well as all the boys clipped from 20 seconds to one minute of their best time for any previous year. Bill Hickman ran third; Pete Abbrecht, seventh; George Allen, eighth; and Stan Smith, ninth.
Jim Anderson and John Bower, Lincoln Park raced stride for stride for most of the course; but coming in for the last quarter mile, Jim made his bid with a terrific sprint, overtook Bower, and won to win. Bower tied the old course record at 10:02.
For the first time in years, a perfect score was made by Birmingham. In the reserve meet the Maples took the first five places, to make the lowest score possible in a cross country meet at 15 points, winning 15-43.

Cranbrook Junior Varsity Wins, 12-6

Monday afternoon at 2:30, the Junior Varsity football team of Cranbrook School defeated the Basch High School of Centerline 12-6.
Rafe Beardsley scored the first touchdown on a line plunge early in the game and Bill Jones of Basch tied the score in the second period on a pass play. Don Baldwin scored Cranbrook's second touchdown in the fourth period, an off-tackle play.
No extra points were made after touchdowns.

'Atmosphere' for Halloween Dance Is Determined

Witches, scarecrows and pumpkins will provide atmosphere Friday night for the Halloween dance at the Community House after the giant bonfire and barbecue.
A life-size witch will bend over a bonfire of pumpkins by the fire place. In the center of the room a pumpkin-headed scarecrow will keep watch on Birmingham students as they dance while on the stage a spooky scene will add to the feeling of Halloween.
Mary Ann Wilkinson and Laura Thurston are co-chairmen.
