Ma Clemens had no trouble defeating crippled Hazel Park by a 31-0 score.

Jim Anderson, cross country star, set a new course record at Lincoln Park last week in 32:02. The course was just short of two miles. Hence, Jimmy probably equaled the Phyllis' record of 10:17 for a regular two-mile course.

Last Saturday morning Coach Vincent, Seointine and his grid-men held a football clinic at Pierce Field for the benefit of the lower schools. The object of this clinic was to enlighten the youngsters on a few common fundamentals and formations used by the team.

New football helmets have been ordered for this season and were supposed to arrive for the first time. The team is patiently waiting for the new helmets which resembles the helmets worn by Notre Dame and most college teams.

To date the football squad has used or worn out approximately 500 football cleats, which just goes to show the boys haven't been dead on their feet.

Counselors Attend MSC Conference

The Baldwin Counselors, Mrs. Carol Darling and Larned G. Goodrich, attended the Test Conference at the Union Building at Michigan State College last Saturday.

The Institute of Counseling, Testing and Guidance, with the cooperation of the board of examiners of the school, is sponsoring a series of these course-conferences. The first of which was a study of commercial and teacher-made achievement tests.

Opening the program was Dr. C. E. Erickson, who discussed the purpose of the conference, and Dr. Paul Dressel, who spoke on the program and the service of the board of examiners.

Following the introductory speeches, the group divided and went to the various sectional discussions of commercial achievement tests. Mrs. Darling went to English and literature and Mr. Goodrich went to physical science and mathematics.

When discussions terminated, the guests reassembled at the Union Building where luncheon was served. After lunch the sectionals resumed with discussions of teacher-made tests.

Maple, Viking Reserves Battle to Scoreless Tie

By Lee Daly

Birmingham reserves rallied last Thursday night at Hazel Park to tie the Hazel Park reserves 0-0 after being thrumped by two-rivals this season.

In the first two quarters of the contest, each team took its downs and kicked to improve its condition. In the third play of the second quarter, John Kaiter, Birmingham, threw a 35-yard pass to the Vikings' ten. Birmingham tried an aerial offensive but failed to score. The Vikings then took possession, and with a combination of ground and aerial offenses planted the ball on Birmingham's 11 only to be halted in the last minute before the half by Jim Laidig's interception of a 25-yard pass.

It was not until the fourth quarter that the deadlock was broken. Birmingham's 11 on the closing seconds of the game. Harold Jackson, Birmingham, intercepted one of Red Smith's passes to the 50 as the game ended.

Choose 10 Seniors to Compete for Prize Scholarship

Ten senior boys were honored last week when they were chosen to take the tests for the Pepsi-Cola Prize Scholarship.

All of those students whose names were on the ballot, their names were placed in a hat and the best in scholastic standing and ability to succeed. The chosen were: Pete Abbrecht, Dick Adams, George Allen, Jim Anderson, Clifford Dunn, Jim English, Gerry Hughes, Fred Mallender, Tom Mills and Bill Robertson.

Two tests will be given all Michigan students competing for the scholarship. The first will be an aptitude test and the second the regular college entrance examination. The scholarship consists of all tuition and academic fees, traveling expenses, and a 25-dollar-month allowance for four years.

On the first time the test was given, Polly Hanson won the scholarship. The next year a 60-dollar certificate of merit was awarded Dick Robertson and last year Marion Weaver won the top award, giving Birmingham three winners in three years.

N'western Students

Northwestern university reports its largest enrollment in the 96 years of its history. It includes the registration of 296 students from Michigan, with ten from Birmingham.

The local students are Thomas Hapes Allen, Jan Coll, Alfred Louis Farquar, Charles J. Smith, Mary Kay Smith, Charles Watts Wacker, in the College of Liberal Arts; Edgar King Beatty and Donald Martin McLeese in the School of Journalism; Robert Edgar Berges in the School of Education and Robert Elmer Gove in the School of Commerce.

Bowling Expert to Give Demonstration

Rod Smith, proprietor of the Birmingham Bowling Alleys on Hunter, has scheduled Joe "Man-O-War" Miller for a public demonstration at his alleys on Wednesday, November 5. There will be no admission charge and the public is invited to the clinic which will begin at 1:30 p.m.

Miller is one of the world's finest bowlers, having been the match game champion in 1933 and 1934. His feat of nearly rolling a perfect series has never been approached. It is a series in which he toppled 285 pins with games of 288, 300 and 300. He has rolled 237 perfect games and his average is 218 for 2,100 games.
