New Yorker Next Speaker on Cass Town Hall List

"Americans Can Be Proud" is the subject of Edward D. Dunn's lecture for The Detroit Town Hall's Lecture at The Cass Theatre, Friday morning, November 7th at 11 o'clock. Dunn, playwright, architect and author, is a distinguished New Yorker of a prominent family—his brother, James Clement Dunn, a member of the U.S. diplomatic service, is now the Ambassador to Italy.

Dunn practiced as an architect for ten years in New York when World War I interrupted and he served in Washington as a designer of mine sweepers. Following December, 1941, he again served his country under A. Loring Swasey, his commander in the first war, as a special aid to the Liaison Office in Washington.

Dunn's earliest aim and love was the theatre and playwriting and he successfully wrote and collaborated on "The Claw" starring Lionel Barrymore; "The Red Robe", "The Last Waltz", "Dew Drop Inn" and others. His novel "Caravans" is about the theatre—his "Double Crossing America By Motor" is a travel guide of the wonders of this country. To his varied list of career activities, he has added that of lecturer, and he is working to spread a greater understanding of Europe and of the pride Americans may feel in their country's record.

SCF Clothing Drive Nets 5,675 Pounds

Mrs. Rudolf E. Esch, president of the local Save the Children Federation, reports a total of 5,675 pounds of clothing were received during the recent drive. The articles, which the committee reports were in exceptionally good condition, are being packed and shipped to Europe for distribution among the children there.

She added that through the efficient help of the local schools, the whole task was made pleasant and very easy. In behalf of the SCF Mrs. Esch thanked Dr. Dwight B. Ireland and members of the twelve participating schools who worked so hard and so successfully in this third such drive in Birmingham.

How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!
