Birmingham School Representatives Interviewed Over MSC Radio Station

By Dick Adams

As that old faithful, Father Time, swept past the 21st pillar last Tuesday, a sigh of relief was all that four happy Birmingham students could utter to conclude their thrilling 15-minute appearance over station WKAR, East Lansing.

Peter Weitzel from Franklin Village, representing the elementary schools; Jan Kinsley, state director of the treasury department's school savings program; in a panel discussion broadcast on thrift education.

Awaiting the fatal "on the air" signal, all eyes were glued devoutly to the tranquil hand of the studio director and tense muscles jumped as the speaking quartet listened to the opening bars of "America the Beautiful."

Following Penhale's introductory remarks, Phyllis commented on how student savings were being reinstated in Michigan through the student association.

Just Begun To Unwind

Jan is convinced that just about anything can happen on the radio. For as she was referring to her brother at the University of Michigan, Peter Weitzel, son of Tony Weitzel, radio and newspaper commentator, like a chip of the old block interposed, "I wouldn't mention Michigan around this place after last Saturday."

"And why not?" ejaculated Jan. "Well, Michigan defeated State 52-9," stated the 11-year-old Peter as amused onlookers chuckled.

The quarter hour program seemed to elapse so quickly that the participants felt as though they had just begun to unwind and could continue for hours.

The text of the broadcast was the promotion of the treasury department's student thrift program, urging boys and girls to invest in government bonds and stamps.

Director Penhale cooperates with the Michigan schools in furnishing curricular material, movies, plays, and radio scripts for all grade levels.

There is no doubt that there is a definite interest for equality in Birmingham, as well as many other American municipalities.

Barnum Defeats Royal Oak, 6-0

Bar-Jim Junior High School opened its Little Oak League football schedule with a win over Royal Oak, 6-0. Ed Herron, Barnum fullback, crashed over the center of the line for a score early in the first period. The try for point was missed.

Royal Oak presented a dangerous attack but they were stopped several times close to Barnum's goal line.

The Barnum lineup included: Charles Ganley and Art Fairbank; George Bosworth and Gerald Tewillinger, tackles; John Burson and John Donnelly, guards; Gordon Ship, center; Jack Barter, Tom Tracey, halves; and Ed Herron, fullback.

A large crowd turned out for the night game. Other league games were Berkley 18, Cranbrook 0, Ferdale 14, Hazel Park 20, and Royal Oak 6.

Barnum played Hazel Park yesterday afternoon and plays Ferdale at Pierce Field at 7:30 on Wednesday, Oct. 15.

Barnum's 45-piece band, under the direction of Arnold Berndt, will play between halves and during other intermissions.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

Howdy, gang.

"Get this jalopy rolling" and "Hey, wait for me," were cries heard out in front of school at 2:30 Friday afternoon among other shouts and groans while the Maple were run back and forth eager to get to the football game at Mt. Clemons.

Some students saw saw singing and jumping into cars were Art Lake, Sally Warner, Sue Hershey, John Martin, Don Runkel, Norm Goddard and Sue Pomeroy.

While watching the game, Annie tried to sneak a peek and see who all were in the stands. Millions of students stamping and cheering until they were blue in the face!

A Taffy Pull

Among them were Ann Tunnicliffe, Sherrill Williams, Judy Pardee, Anne Lundberg, Peggy McNeil, Barb Stephens, Yvonne Egan, Bill Castine, Les Durham, Kern McKay, Barb Strohman, Mary Ghehrst and many others Annie saw.

Some of the constant yelling "Down in front!"

Friday night proved to be very exciting and strong for the kids who gathered in the Ranch Room to pull taffy. Lois Davison and Mary Grosvenor supplied seven batches of taffy already cooked for the enormous group. Among those seen greasing their hands awaiting their turn to pull were Joe O'Connell, Ted Harper, Shirley Green, Marvin Hutson, Jim Phillips and Sally Hovey.

Others apparently having fun were stage Bill Elliott, Bill Hovey, Joan Reing, Shirley Reed and Janet Wilson. After the taffy was pulled, the kids settled to a quiet, restful evening dancing and playing ping-pong.

Sports Showup

By Dick Jeffers

Local gridiron fans saw Bill Spiegel, former Maple halfback, in action for Michigan State against Mississippi at East Lansing Saturday. Bud Gasser, the other Maple representative on State's Spartans, is sidelined with an injured knee.

From last year's team, Joe Bowen, now attending DePaul, failed to make the trip to Minnesota with his teammates due to an eye injury. Reports say his vision is unharmed.

Reports from the league show that Hazel Park and East Detroit battled to a tie, Ferdale scored 38-21 over Ann Arbor and Port Huron beat Sarnia.

The Port-Huron-Sarnia experiment is interesting. One half of the game was played according to rules of American football and one half as Canadian rugby.

Grosse Pointe, former Maple rival, beat Royal Oak's Acorns in the last 40 seconds of play due to a blocked kick deep in the Acorns' territory.

The cross country team fell before Dearborn last week though our men placed first, fourth and fifth. This was the first loss since 1944. It probably will be a help in building up the team for the State run.

Dearborn Defeats Baldwin Harriers

By Pete Abbrecht

Suffering its first dual meet loss in two years, the Birmingham cross country team was upset by Dearborn's Harriers on the rugged Ford Field course last Friday by a score of 31-26.

The Maples' Bill Hickman, leading at the end of the first mile, lost his footing on the treacherous Pioneer course, resulting in the loss of precious seconds. He was passed by Jim Anderson, who held the lead to take first place for the Maples with a time of 10:59. Second and third places went to Bouch and Seadwick, Dearborn.

Fourth and fifth places were taken for the Maples by Hickman and Pete Abbrecht. George Allen and Jerry Newman finished tenth and eleventh to complete Birmingham's scoring.

Birmingham easily won the reserve meet, 18-37.
