

Wyatt-Ferguson Rites Held in Evanston, Ill., on Friday Afternoon

Mrs. George Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Brown have been in Evanston, Ill., where they attended the wedding of their granddaughter and niece, Miss Jean Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Ferguson, formerly of Birmingham, she was married Friday afternoon to Bradley Muir Wyatt, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley M. Wyatt of Arlington, N. J.

The double ring ceremony was performed in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, the Rev. John Hues, Jr., officiating. The church was lighted with tall white tapers. The bride wore a gown of white moire faille with a long veil, and her grandmother's wedding cap of rose point lace. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and orchids.

She was attended by Mrs. Warren Yates, sister of the groom, who was gowned in toast brown moire crepe. She carried Talsman roses.

Roland Schmidt of Oak Park, Mich., was the best man.

Mrs. Ferguson, the bride's mother, chose a gown of beige crepe, with a baby green orchid.

After their wedding trip the couple will make their home in New York City.

Beverly Johnstone Leaves for Six-Week British Isles Tour

Miss Beverly Johnstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnstone of North Woodward, sailed Sept. 3 on the Queen Elizabeth for a six weeks trip to Europe. She was accompanied by Sally Miller, sister of her fiancé, Dr. J. M. Miller, and a friend of Sally's, both students of Indiana University.

The three girls are planning a bicycle tour of England, Ireland and Scotland. The London Rotary club will entertain them at luncheon while they are in that city, and several other affairs are planned in their honor by relatives and friends. They have a sorority sister who is married and now living in Sweden, and plan to visit her if time permits.

They will return to the States in October at which time Miss Miller and her friend will resume their college classes.

Couple Wed 62 Years Honored at Parties

Mrs. Adelaide Hoover held open house at her home on Townsend street to close friends and her family Saturday and Sunday when her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warner, who make their home with her, noted their 62nd wedding anniversary.

A surprise guest at the celebration was her son, Pvt. Arthur Hoover, who arrived home Saturday on a 15-day leave. He has been stationed at Lackland Air Base in San Antonio, Tex., for some time. On his return he will report at Hamilton Field, Calif., and go from there to a Pacific base.

Charles Blunt to Be Speaker for Pierce PTA Meet

"Take part in determining the kind of education your child will be given," says Charles Blunt, who will call to order the first meeting of the Pierce School PTA tonight at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Mother vice-president Mrs. Wilson H. Feldman and her committee, Mrs. E. B. Palmer, Mrs. Philip R. McNelly, Mrs. Stanley Rose and Mrs. Edward Laird, will be on hand to greet old friends and welcome new ones.

The program will feature two movies from the University of Michigan on Cub Scouting, pointing up the executive board's purpose, to show the benefits of co-operation between home, school, and school activities.

Prims Objective
Promoting this spirit is the prime object of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, of which Pierce PTA is a local unit.

Boys' activities chairman, William B. Davies, and girls activities chairman, Mrs. Buck Sullivan, are looking forward to meeting the mothers and fathers of all present and prospective Cub Scouts and Brownies.

Letters have gone out from the executive board to all Pierce parents, inviting them to serve as room mothers, at Cub Scout Den Mothers and Fathers, as Brownie Leaders, to serve on the hospital committee and on the library committee, to help with the money raising project. A number of parents have already shown their interest by volunteering.

Mary Burns Speaks Before Altar Society

The Holy Name Altar Society met Monday afternoon for its regular monthly meeting, with Miss Mary Burns of the Catholic Family Center of Detroit as the guest speaker. She told of the work being done through the Center and explained how it is carried on.

The meeting was held in the Alumni House with the Rev. David J. Duncan and the Rev. J. J. Kress as guests. Mrs. Frank McGinnis and Mrs. Carlos Bingham poured at the tea which followed.

St. James Church Scene of Blauman-Tox Nuptials

Miss Barbara Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hower Fox, became the bride of Carl Thomas Blauman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Blauman of Franklin street, at 4:30 Saturday afternoon. The tip veil was held in place by a plaided Dutch cap of matching satin. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and gardenias, centered with a single white orchid.

Her maid of honor, her sister Martha Katherine Fox, and the brides-maid, Marilyn Blauman, sister of the groom, and Barbara Foster, were all gowned alike in American Beauty taffeta. The gowns were made with ruffles at the hip extending to form a bustle. Their headresses were of plaided crowns of the same material as the dresses. Each carried a bouquet of Sally roses.

The best man was the groom's brother, Richard Blauman. The guests were seated by Donald Fisher, Robert Jessup, Robert Little and Donald Roberts.

Mrs. Fox chose a dinner gown of pale blue crepe, made with long sleeves and a high neck jacket, which was trimmed with silver and sapphire beads. She wore a matching feather hat and carried flowers on her purse. The groom's mother was gowned in pale pink lace, and also wore a matching feather hat.

After the reception the couple left on a Northern wedding trip, for which Mrs. Blauman selected a suit of postman blue wool with brown accessories. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Upon their return they will reside on Bates street, and Mr. Blauman will continue his studies at the University of Detroit.
