Joan Lander Exchanges Vows in Church Wedding

A candlelight ceremony marked the wedding of Elizabeth Joan Lander and George Lewis Stierle, Saturday evening in St. James Church. The Rev. Harold E. Towne officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ziegler Lander of Wing Lake. She selected a gown of camellia white satin, made with a draped bodice with a seed pearl trim and long sleeves. The square yoke of illusion was outlined with satin petals. The skirt was full and ended in a long English net veil, with a shoulder length veil which was held by a small shepherdess bonnet of satin embroidered in seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of gardenias with satin streamers.

Taffeta Gowns
The maid of honor, who is a cousin of the bride, was Patricia Keller. She was gown in aqua, while the bridesmaids, Joan Wyckoff and Cynthia Stierle, sister of the groom, wore dusty pink.

The gowns were made of tissue taffeta, with snugly draped waist and a butterfly bow to form a bundle. They were matching taffeta mitts and horsehair halos.
