Clark-Tomlinson Wedding Saturday in Connecticut

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Marjorie Radcliffe Tomlinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Tomlinson of Wallingford, Conn., to Robert Louis Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Clark of Willetts street. The wedding was performed last Saturday evening at the Marquand Chapel of Yale Divinity School, with the Rev. John W. Wallbridge officiating. The ceremony was performed before an altar decorated with white gladioli and white candles in candelabra.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. John M. Heath of Wallingford, and was given away in marriage by her uncle, John W. Leavenworth. She wore a white satin gown with long sleeves pointed at the wrists, a fitted bodice, full skirt and a long train. Her hair was styled in a bun, and she wore a white veil. The groom wore a tuxedo and a white shirt with a bow tie. The wedding party included the bride's mother, Mrs. David Tomlinson, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Laurence Clark. The reception was held at the Hotel Taft in Wallingford, Conn.

Anderson Engagemet Announced at Tea in Frankfort, Germany

Transoceanic phone brings the news of the engagement of Miss Faye Anderson, Red Cross recreation director in Frankfort, Germany, to John Barnard Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Taft, of Taunton, Mass.

A small reception was held after the ceremony at the Hotel Taft. The bride wore a dusty pink crepe gown and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Clark wore royal blue crepe, and gardenias.

Faye Anderson

of Worcester, Mass. Mr. Bennett is stationed in Frankfort with the executive office of the Provost Marshal.

The engagement was announced at a tea given by Miss Janet Kello, of Boston, close friend of the bride-elect, who is also stationed in Frankfort with the Red Cross. Miss Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson of Pine Lake road, has been in Germany since November. With the closing of all Red Cross posts there about the middle of October, Miss Anderson will complete her tour of duty, and it is believed by her family that the wedding will take place directly after that. Mr. Bennett, however, will not complete his assignment there until early summer.

IMPROPERLY MEASURED MEDICINE MAY BECOME POISON

The medicine your doctor prescribes is designed for a specific ailment and calculated to your age and general physical condition. By carefully following your doctor's instructions as to dosage, you assist the medicine in performing its function. To many people, however, are careless about measuring the amount of medicine they take . . . careless about mixing it with water when so directed . . . and this carelessness may lead to serious consequences. It is of the utmost importance to follow prescribed dosage precisely. Medicine, improperly measured, may become poison.
