

Pestifolies are not the only places to benefit from the helicopter. The helicopter saved the ripening Santa Clara, Cal., cherry crop from damage in the wake of a heavy rain by flying over the orchards at tree top level. The downdraft of the helicopter blew the raindrops off the fruit which would have swollen and burst under the heavy sun.

Obituary

Mrs. Pearl H. Smith

Mrs. Pearl Hirst Smith died at her home on Webster avenue Sept. 11. She was born in Yountville, Ind., on Aug. 30, 1876, and was married to Walter R. Smith in 1892. She has been a resident of Birmingham for the past two years, coming here from Chicago. She is survived by her husband, two sons, Earl H. of Birmingham and Donald W., of Dearborn; two brothers, Fred T. Hirst of Rock Island, Ill., and J. Will Hirst of Chicago.

She was a member of the Crawfordville, Ind., Methodist church, Crawfordville Chapter, Daughters of Indiana, and of the Windsor Park Women's Club of Chicago.

The body was taken from the Manley Bailey funeral home to Crawfordville, where funeral services were held Saturday afternoon.

LESTER W. MIX

Lester W. Mix, former resident, died at St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor last Thursday after an illness of one month. He is survived by three sons, Leon E. Mix of Tecumseh, Ray E. Mix of Wyandotte and Charles Robert Mix of Corvallis, Ore.; also five grandchildren.

Burial was in Tecumseh, Mr. Mix's home at the time of his death, on Saturday.

MRS. MINA P. HAVEN

Mrs. Mina Pless Haven died suddenly Sunday at her home on Livernost street in Troy township, following a heart attack. She was born in Brighton on May 3, 1878, and on July 25, 1900, was married to Clarence W. Haven in Lansing. The family came to Birmingham from Detroit about 35 years ago. Mrs. Haven was a member of the Presbyterian church in Royal Oak.

Surviving besides her husband are one son, Maurice W. Haven of Troy township; a daughter, Mrs. Frank Van Meter of Birmingham; a sister, Mrs. M. A. Root of Evanston, Ill.; and two grandchildren in Birmingham.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Manley Bailey funeral home, with burial in Roseland cemetery. The Rev. W. Glen Harris of the First Presbyterian church officiated.

MRS. ARDA C. BASSETT

Mrs. Arda C. Bassett of Fairway drive, died in St. Joseph hospital in Pontiac Monday, after a long illness.

She was born in Saline, Mich., on July 11, 1886, and attended the public schools there. She was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1911, and later married Laverne Bassett at Ann Arbor. They lived in Grosse Ile for some time, moving to Birmingham 17 years ago.

She is survived by a son, Clark L. Bassett of Grosse Pointe Shores; a brother, Albert L. Clark, Sr., of Ann Arbor, and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) morning from the Bell funeral home, with burial at Belle Chateau cemetery. The Rev. Francis B. Cramer, pastor of Christ Church in Grosse Pointe will officiate and burial will be in Forest Lawn cemetery, Ann Arbor.

ALLEN L. TEWILLIAGER

Allen L. Tewilliager, veteran of World War II, died in the Veterans' hospital in Dearborn Monday. He had been ill a long time.

He was born in Southfield township on Oct. 5, 1919, and was graduated from Baldwin high school. In 1941 he married Lois Paisley, who survives.

At the outbreak of the war he was employed by the Detroit Edison Co., leaving to enter service as a glider pilot. He attained the rank of first lieutenant, and was discharged from active duty in July, 1945.

Other survivors include two little daughters, Nancy Lee and Lorraine Gail; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Tewilliager; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Bell of Detroit, Margaret, Lorraine and Ina May of Birmingham; four brothers, Herbert, Frederick, Gerald and Danny, also of Birmingham.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, from the Bell funeral home. The Rev. Arnold F. Runkel of the First Methodist church officiated.
