Lathrup Townsite News

By LILLIAN DIEDERICH

The townsite Career and College Group held its first orchestra dance recently in the clubhouse and the response exceeded all expectations.

The 25-1/2 club of the Shrine of the Little Flower and several members of the 20-30 Birmingham group, as well as townsite couples, participated.

"The House in the Woods" was lavishly decorated within. The ballroom resembled a rose arbor with white crepe paper roses appearing at intervals throughout the lattice work ceiling.

A wishing well beneath the spiral stairway was almost completely covered with roses and the stairway followed the motif as did the refreshment tables. Corages of roses were given each lady at the entrance.

Woman's club held a dessert bridge in the clubhouse Wednesday night, with 100 reservations. The high school group will hold an informal dance in the clubhouse Sept. 24 with Mr. and Mrs. L. Mackey of San Jose drive as the sponsors.

Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Baker of Lebanon, Ill. were house guests of the Lee R. Bakkers of Saratoga boulevard the past three weeks.

Barbara Firth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Firth of Lathrup boulevard, was hostess recently to 15 week-end guests at a slumber party.

The guests included Barbara Cline, Sue Jarvis, Del Hayes, Helen Schimpke, Beverly Jones, Mary Margaret Torrance, Sunny Black, Marilyn Rostow, Mary Kay Wheeler, Judy Seaborn, Joan Weaver, Jean Porter and Donna Hilde.

The TYPS held its first fall meeting at the home of Sunny Black on Sunday evening.

Townsite Community Church Circle No. 11 will hold a bridge luncheon Monday, Sept. 22, at 12:30 at Fruit Ridge Inn. Mrs. Harold Nash will take reservations.

Circle No. 11 will have a bake sale Sept. 29 in Royal Oak. Donations will be gratefully received by Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Hayes.

Professor Preston Blossom, of the University of Michigan, will be guest speaker at the 11 o'clock service next Sunday.

Members who donated flowers for the altar this summer were: Mrs. Charles Herrick, Mrs. Arthur Mitchell, Mrs. Fred Wilson, Mrs. Thomas Meyers, Mrs. David B. Redwood, Mrs. Eugene Himes and Mrs. L. Boyse.

The TYPS elected these officers: president, Dorothy Hayes; vice-president, Fernor Coppens; secretary, Joan Weaver; treasurer, Barbara Firth; historian,

Local Man Purchases
Berkley Newspaper

The Berkley Advance, official newspaper of the city of Berkley for the past five years, was purchased recently by Jerome P. Norf of Birmingham. Norf lives at 916 Kennesaw and will continue to make his home here. He has already taken over the active management of the newspaper from Frank Hart of Berkley, its former owner.

In December the club will present "Cricket on the Hearth," under the direction of Mrs. W. O. Merrill. Other featured meetings are also planned, and will be announced at a later date. In May the junior club women will again have charge of the annual lunch.
