Christ Church Scene of Ryder-Polczynski Rites

Miss Donna Polczynski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boleslaw Polczynski of Franklin Village, became the bride of George R. Ryder, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ryder of Toledo, Ohio, at 8 o'clock Friday evening. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Hill in Christ Church Cranbrook against a background of white gladioli.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gown in ivory satin. The gown was made with a tightly fitted bodice with a square neckline and long pointed sleeves. The skirt ended in a long train. Her short veil was caught with a coronet of satin, matching the gown. She carried a bridal bouquet of gardenias.

Her mother of honor, Mrs. Chester Hard, wore a gown of emerald green velvet with a bouffant skirt and bolero jacket. She carried a bouquet of copper gladioli. The bridesmaids, Beverly McClellan of Grosse Pointe and Marjorie McLouth and a Marjorie McKinley of Birmingham, wore gowned the same, and carried bouquets of yellow gladioli. All wore bands of emerald green in their hair.

Kenneth Kiefer of Lansing was the best man, while the guests were seated by Wayne Eberhart of Grosse Pointe, Linn Coll of Grand Rapids and Robert Hieninger of Toledo.

Mrs. Polczynski chose a dress of American Beauty crepe with which she wore a matching hat and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother was gown in aqua crepe with a matching hat, and wore a talisman rose corsage.

The reception was held for the wedding party and guests at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryder are enjoying a wedding tour through Canada, along Lake Erie to New York. The bride selected a gray flannel suit with a boy jacket, and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white orchids.

Upon their return, both will resume their studies at Michigan State College in Lansing.

The book projector, which was ordered a short time ago and which is to be presented to the veterans in the Oakland County Tuberculosis Hospital, was reported on. The projector will be delivered, noon, and presented at once to the men there. An additional $25 was voted by the Auxiliary at the time the order was placed for additional book film.

The next meeting also will take the form of a tea as the members honor the president-elect, Miss Baynes has been elected historian of the 17th district for the State of Michigan American Legion Auxiliary. She received this honor at the state convention held in Detroit during the summer. The regular installation of officers will also take place at the meeting, which is to be held in the Legion Home on Tuesday evening, September 30.

An invitation is extended to all ex-service women, wives, mothers or widows of ex-service men to meet with the Auxiliary at this time, and learn, first hand, some of the programs it has scheduled for the coming year.

City's Newcomers Invited to Attend Sept. 25 Luncheon

How to enjoy life in Birmingham and meet some of the liveliest people in the city will be outlined to women who have resided in the town two years or less at a luncheon in their honor at the Community House at one o'clock on Thursday, Sept. 25.

All women residents of less than two years standing, and women who want to get acquainted with them, are invited to the lunch, for which more than 300 invitations have been issued, although invitations are not necessary.

The place of the Community House in the social fabric of the city will be explained to the newcomers. Heads of the leading women's organizations will be present to describe briefly the programs of work and social activity available to people of Birmingham.

Plans have been made for a permanent Newcomers' Club for the purpose of getting new arrivals in Birmingham acquainted and integrated in town activities more quickly. At present Mrs. Paul Hoffman is chairman of the Newcomers' Club Committee although a permanent chairman from among the Newcomers will be appointed later.

Mrs. John Hart of 404 Linden is chairman of the September 25 luncheon. Later gathering of Newcomers will be arranged by Mrs. Harry Hopp, 633 Lakeview, Mrs. Donald King, 531 Lakeland and Mrs. Harold Compton, 1288 Edgewood.

Mrs. Owen Herndon, 1025 Pilgrim is also a member of the committee for the Newcomers Club, serving with the women already mentioned.
