

Community House to Stage Dancing Classes This Fall

Mysteries of the samba, rumba, swing, fox-trot and waltz are to be disclosed to all who wish to learn under professional instruction at Tuesday night dance classes at the Community House this fall and winter.

The classes, run in two sections, one for teen-agers and one for the older group, are part of the hobby-recreation program of the Community House which got a response from hundreds of people last winter.

The older group, particularly, seem to be interested in the classes. The classes, beginning September 30, will have instructors at the Community House each Tuesday evening, beginning September 30, teaching teen-agers at 7:30 and the older group at 8:30. Registration for both classes should be made at the Community House not later than September 22. Both classes will be limited in number, and the first applicants will be accepted.

Miss Ann, recreation director for the Community House, and spokesman for the young dancers, disclosed that the four dances to be taught are "what every dancer should know." They are social necessities for today's dancers, she says.

Already enrolled in the class are Mr. and Mrs. Austin Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Whitlaw and Mr. and Mrs. Theron Van Dusen, according to Miss Will.

MOMS Tag Day Well Supported; Express Thanks

Members of the MOMS Club of Birmingham wish to extend their sincere thanks to local residents for the splendid support given their Tag Day Saturday. Over $700 was realized, which will be used to bring "extras" to the veterans in the Dearborn Hospital and the Marine Hospital in Detroit.

The members of the club are now adding the Marine Hospital to their list of visits, which is adding a much larger number of men to their list. With the opening of the new wing at Dearborn, they will also have many additional demands made, and the increased response this year is most heartening to them.

The money is used to buy candy, cigarettes, writing supplies, and many other small items which mean such a great deal to the men who are confined to the hospitals through war-time injuries.

The Marine hospital is visited on Tuesday each month, while the Dearborn veterans receive three visits a month.

Dasher, press relations; Mrs. Robert F. Kehr, Mrs. Newell Allen and Mrs. Steele R. Sellers, program committee.

The committees were announced at the regular meeting of the chapter Sept. 16, at the home of Mrs. Warren Reese. Dr. W. Glen Harris, pastor of the First Presbyterian church was the guest speaker and chose for his topic, "A Visit to Scenes that Test Religion and Democracy."

Chapman-Forrester Nuptials Read at Bride's Home Friday

Miss Donna Christine Forrester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Forrester of North Adams road, became the bride of Richard W. Chapman of Charlotte Friday afternoon in a pretty home ceremony. The Rev. Dr. W. Glen Harris, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated before a background of massed white gladioli. The bride wore a gown of royal blue satin and carried a bridal bouquet of gardenias. Her attendant, Miss Betty Billings of Detroit, was gowned in grey crepe and carried red roses.

The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chapman of Charlotte, had Jack Landers of Indiana as his best man.

Mrs. Forrester wore a gown of beige wool, with a gardenia corsage. The groom's mother was dressed in blue satin and also wore a corsage of gardenias. A reception was held at the Forrester home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman left for a wedding trip to New York, for which the bride chose a beige suit and a gardenia corsage. Upon their return they will live in Lansing, where both are attending Michigan State College.
