Local Man Takes Indiana Bride in Church Ceremony

In West Lafayette, Ind., last Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Miss Betty Mann became the bride of Stephen Farr Booth of Birmingham.

The ceremony was performed in the First Methodist Church by the Rev. W. O. Eckler against a background of white gladioli. Two candelabra with lighted tapers flanked the altar.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Samuel Mann of New Richmond, Ind., was given in marriage by her father.

Her gown was fashioned of white lace in a water lily design over white satin. The deep boat neckline and long tight sleeves which tapered to points were edged with the petal design of the lace. The gown was made with a fitted bodice and gored skirt over tied knees. Her fingertip veil of bridal silk illusion was also edged with the petal design, and was held in place with a satin band with small clusters of orange bloomsoms on either side. She carried a prayer book upon which was fastened a white orchid with stephanotis.

Attendants' Gowns

The maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Barnes of West Lafayette, wore a gown of moonlight yellow organza, made the same as that worn by the bride. She wore a picture hat of matching horsehair band and short lace mitts. Her flowers were made up into a colonial bouquet.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Martha Owen, Barbara Bray, Phyllis Pesha and Margot D'Aoust, all of West Lafayette, were attired in sea green organza and also carried colonial bouquets.
The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Scripps Booth of Thore-land, Bloomfield Hills, was attended by his brother, David C. Booth.
The ushers were Frederick C.
Booth and G. Randall Booth, cousins of the groom. Roy S. Williams son of Danville, Ill., and Bill D.
Mann of West Lafayette, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Mann chose a street length dress of aqua printed jersey, with a hat of black taffeta and horsehair, with matching accessories. She wore a fuchsia-centered white orchid. The groom's mother selected navy crepe in a street length dress with a V-neck-

Mrs. Stephen Farr Booth.

line and bracelet sleeves. Her crownless hat was of navy horsehair trimmed with navy and light blue ostrich tips. She wore a white orchid.

Fly to Bermuda

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the beautiful Lincoln Lodge, overlooking the Walden.

The couple left by plane on a trip to Cambridge Beaches, Somerset, Bermuda. The bride wore a tailored cutaway white suit of lightweight bengaline and white accessories. The orchid which adorned her prayer book completed the costume.

They will reside on Brady Lane in Bloomfield Hills upon their return.

Out-of-Town Guests Those from this vicinity who attended the wedding besides Mr. and Mrs. Booth are the groom's sisters, Melinda and Martha Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Calder, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Beresford, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Beresford, their children, John, Virginia and Daniel, Miss M. Romaine Thompson, Miss Ruth Cumming, J. Rodney Weeks, Everett L. Farr and Miss Cynthia Booth, eldest sister of the groom, is in Wyoming and was unable to attend.

D. Burnett Weds Karen Carlyon At Grand Rapids

Miss Karen Ruth Carlyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Francis Carlyon of Grand Rapids, became the bride of Donald Goodson Burnett, son of Mr. and Mrs.
P. G. Burnett of Hanna street Friday. The ceremony was performed in Kluge Memorial chapel at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Bernard J. Mulder of New York City.

The chapel was decorated for the occasion with baskets of white gladioli, candelabra, white candles and palms. At Grand of Kalamazoo College sang "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of heavy ivory satin with a sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a Juliette cap, and she carried a bouquet of one white orchid and white chrysanthemums and roses.

Her maid of honor was her sister, Miss Katharine Carlyon, who wore rose satin and marquette made with cap sleeves, with which she wore matching gloves. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Jeanette Donnes of Lansing and Miss Shirley Burnett of Birmingham, wore gowns of blue satin and marquette with matching gloves. They also carried bouquets of yellow roses.

The best man was Kenneth Burnett, brother of the groom. The ushers were Robert A. White of Detroit and Robert Mallory of Birmingham.

The bride's mother was gowned in British blue crepe and wore a corsage of Tallman roses. Mrs.
Burnett wore rose crepe with a deep rose corsage.

Following the reception held in the church parlors the couple left on a wedding trip through the East. They will return to Kalamazoo about Sept. 15, where the groom will continue his studies at Kalamazoo College.

returning to colleges and universities throughout the country, the Birmingham chapter of Pi Beta Phi will entertain at a bridge luncheon Tuesday, Sept. 9, at 1 o'clock. The affair will be at the home of Mrs. Joseph Wellman on Pilgrim street.

Mrs. Robert Watt is chairman, and will be assisted by Mrs. John Klueberg, Mrs. John Shiner, Mrs.
Jane Walker and Mrs. Kent Wyatt.

The guest list includes: the Misses Phyllis and Joan Chapel, Beverly Grier, Dorothy Scott, Sue Burnside, Karen Larson, Marjorie and Judy Patterson, Nina Kalbtus, Frances Gorch, Betty Es-ton, Joan Sisney, Joyce Rogers, Carol Watts and Barbara Boughner.

The committee asks that any Pi Beta Phi members who may have been unintentionally omitted from this list contact Mrs. Watt immediately.

Rhea Ewald Ellery Wed In Christ Church Rites

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene of the Victor Ellery wedding at 8 o'clock Saturday evening when Rhea Ewald Ellery became the bride of Robert Kingsbury Victor. The ceremony was performed before a small group of relatives and very close friends of the bridal couple by Dr. Charles H. Cadigan, at an altar flanked with white lilies and chrysanthemums.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Ewald of Barbour Terrace in Bloomfield Hills, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of imported white lace, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, tight fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and a very full skirt. Her hairdress was also of white lace. She carried an informal bouquet of pale yellow gladioli fashioned to resemble gar-denias, and trailing chrysanthemums.

Her two attendants, Mrs. William Bathrick Graham of Birmingham and Miss Patricia Neill of Toledo, Ohio, wore pale yellow gowns of tulle, made princess style. They also wore white flowers on pale yellow bands in their hair, and carried bouquets of white larkspur and yellow chrysanthemums tied with yellow ribbon.

The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Frederick Victor of Amesbury, Mass., was attended by his brother, Carl Frederick Victor, Jr., of Long Island.
The ushers were Henry T. Victor of Minneapolis and William R.
Ewald, Jr., of Bloomfield Hills.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.
Mrs. Ewald selected a gown of coral crepe with a white orchid corsage. The groom's mother's gown was gray-blue silk crepe, with which she wore a purple orchid.

The couple are honeymooning at Old Trail Inn near Harbor Springs. The bride chose for her going away costume a red garbaine suit with white gloves, a black hat and black accessories.

Out-of-town guests included Frederic A. Ewald of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Victor of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Carl F.
Victor of Amesbury, Carl F. Victor, Jr., of Long Island, Herbert Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mots of Shaker Heights, Ohio, and Miss Mary Frances Badger of Wilmette, Ill.

Live Today!

How many, many times you hear the oft-expressed aim of those who live "in the future." All their being seems wrapped up in tomorrow—to the virtual exclusion of today's happiness.
Likewise, there are those who still live (or try to live) the yesterdays of life. Obviously, it is impossible either to recapture the latter or to fasten the former. Live TODAY! When we but stop and think about it there's nothing else to do but to agree with this bit of verse which we noticed on the back of a menu in a small northern Michigan inn:

Don't worry about the future;
The present is all thou hast;
The future will come as present And present will soon be past.

There is doubtless some object in our Shop which would mean much happiness if it were in your home TODAY!—perchance you have been waiting until tomorrow before deciding to come in and get it. Isn't it wiser to enjoy it now—to Live TODAY?
