School days, school days—dear old golden rule days—and a new pair of those famous Fied Piper shoes from Williams Best Shop, 115 W. Maple, to complete your young man's outfit for school. Or, if that son of yours is a bit older, he'll want official Boy Scout shoes that are also handled by Williams. In any case, you know and I know that cheap shoes (cheap in quality, not in price) are no longer these days, and that you will be money ahead in buying a well chosen pair from a reputable shop. You'll like to shop at Williams, I'm sure.

Selecting new floor coverings can be a real pleasure, especially when you can do it leisurely right here in Birmingham. For the finest grades of carpeting made, I can refer you to Quinn's Inc., 1000 Hunter Blvd., where you will find Fifth "Sun Ripple" that is made of all worsted yarn and comes in gold, rose, green, grey, or beige. It's $16.95 a yard and will look lovely for years. The Quinn's have seamless chenille broadloom made by James Templeton Co., Glasgow, Scotland, that comes in six lovely shades and widths up to 18 ft. at $24.50 a yard.

College bound? The Maxwell Shop, 164 W. Maple, is showing a 2-piece fine wale corduroy by Sue Mason that will go everywhere on campus. It comes in a variety of tiny waist, has gently rounded fullness over the hips, and is set off with crisp white points collar and cuffs to give you that "Gibson Girl" look. You'll like, too, the Sky-Timer tailored corduroy suits in brown, green, and blue, with their new-nipped waist and longer jacket. The shop also has your favorite classic one-piece gardenias, by Serbin.

Did you ever stop to realize that some people look better in glasses than without? The reason is that they have been fitted with the correct frames—the ones that fit their features best. Dr. Norman E. Becker, Optometrist, 129 E. Maple, formerly with Square Deal Miller in Detroit as manager of the optical department and optometrist, carries all shapes, sizes and types of frames, so he can assist in selecting the frames that will be most flattering to you. For appointment telephone Dr. Becker at 222-2222. Office hours daily except Wednesday afternoon.

"When the frost is on the pumpkin and the fender's in the shock" absolutely every member of your household should have a good warm bathrobe. The Colonial Shop, Adams Rd. at Woodward, has Cook's robes for men, boys, girls or blue with buttons to match that are simply darling and will keep your baby snug as a bug. The Colonial Shop has plenty of blanket bathrobes for the small fry too, in sizes 2 to 10. The shop is open every day, including Wednesday, and there is always plenty of room to park, which is a blessing these days.

It won't be long now before you will want a roaring fire in your fireplace every evening, and before that time comes you'll want the fireplace fixtures put in first-class condition. Brass Unlimited, Woodward Ave. at 14-Mile Rd., will refinish your andirons and fender, at nominal cost, and make them look just like new. The process includes polishing, buffing and coating with the hardest type of lacquer known. Brass Unlimited also refinishes brass lamps, vases, and other decorative metal objects. The store is open every day, except Monday, from 12:00 to 7:00. Phone 4540.

Perhaps I'm a bit old fashioned, but sometimes I find it very satisfactory to be able to consult a woman pharmacist. Helen Dunters, at Otto's Pharmacy, 141 E. Maple, has had 25 years of experience as a registered pharmacist. What's more, Miss Dunters has specialized in vitamins and is in an excellent position to recommend the correct vitamins for your child. So the next time you stop at Otto's Pharmacy, be sure to get acquainted with Miss Dunters. And remember that Otto's Pharmacy maintains a 24-hour prescription service—call 1406 days and 4004 nights.

The crushed sea snail, murex, found along the Mediterranean shores, provided the raw material for the famous Tyrian purple, manufactured by the Phoenicians. Roman purple was more than 1500 years old in the days of the Roman empire. None but the nobility could afford such luxuries. Hence the expression "born to the purple." Today vat dyes of superior quality sell for around $1 a pound.
