Horse Show Is Postponed a Week

Due to bad weather conditions, the Junior Horse Show was postponed from the afternoon of March 27 to Saturday afternoon, April 3.

The event is to be a costume affair with fancy races.

Luncheon will be served buffet style at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club before the show.

Thomas E. Wilson will be the judge.

Entries for the show have been made by Lydia and Jo Rothman, Nanette Hammond, Pete Whitman, Deane and Ping Wright, Walter Brewer, Jimmie and Billy Yaw, Ingrid Reichhold, Janey Fishery, Donna and Toni DiMarco, Donna Hagerman, Nancy Haver, Mary Burton, Dodo Booth and John McDonald.

Silvery blue petals of straw bound with egg velvet greet spring in this Mary Goodfellow creation.

WITH THE COLLEGIANS

Marley Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker of Arlington road, was among 340 students graduated March 19 in the largest winter convocation in the 66-year history of the University of Chicago. Walker received a doctor of law degree.

Betty Steffee, daughter of Mrs. H. P. Steffee of Hazel avenue, has been chosen to represent Western Michigan College on the committee which will be in charge of the inter-sorority formal to be given by the four campus sororities the evening of May 1.

Among the 528 students at Duke University who made the dean's list last semester are Mary Horne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Horne of 9824 Prairie street, and Thomas Bourne Cookerly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Cookerly of 357 Berwyn road. Membership on the dean's list is given those making a B average grade and entitles them to membership in the regulation three absences.

Mary K. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin K. Smith of Buckingham road, who has been spending the spring vacation with her parents, returned March 29 to Northwestern University taking with her a house guest, Miss Josephine of 9824 Prairie street, daughter, Carol, left Saturday for Wilmette, Ill., to visit Miss Constance Nixon enroute to Northwestern.

The Dean's list of Smith College contains the name of Anne Ballentine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Raymond Ballentine. She had also recently been appointed head of the Children's Aid Work under the Student Christian Association. She is business manager of the Octavians Singing Group. David Ballentine, a freshman at Dartmouth, is on the staff of the college magazine, "Jack O' Lanterns."

Miss Steffee to Be Early Summer Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Steffee of Hazel street announce the betrothal of their daughter, Betty, to Richard E. Gibson, a freshman at Wayne University Medical School. He is affiliated with Phi Kappa Sigma medical fraternity. The wedding date is set for July 3.

Betty is a student at Western Michigan College and a member of Senate sorority. Richard is a graduate of Western Michigan College and is now attending Wayne University Medical School.

SOCIETY NEWS must be in the Eccentric editorial office by five o'clock every Tuesday afternoon.

Prize Photo

This photo of a steers, butter, etc. won honorable mention in the annual life contest of the Third Chicago International Exhibit of Nature Photography at Chicago Museum of Natural History. Roper E. Richard of Dearborn, Mich., took it, one of more than 1500 entries.

Debs Will Make Bow to Society

Spring brings buds of various varieties including the debs who make an early bow to society.

One of the first on the calendar will be Susanne Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Anderson of the Hills, who will be introduced at a tea at home the afternoon of June 16.

Looking far ahead to the year of 1949, Betty Yaw will make her debut at a ball Jan. 2, 1949, to be given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Yaw of Bloomfield.

Betty attended Foxhollow School, Lenexa, Mass., and spent the Easter holiday with her parents.

Dr. Harold Towne Speaks to Group

The traditional pre-Easter service of the Club of Religious Education sponsored by the Council of Church Women met at noon last Thursday in the music room of Barnum Junior High School.

John Hildebrand presided and introduced Rev. Harold Towne of St. James Episcopal Church who spoke on the "Character of Pontius Pilate."

This was the final meeting of the year.

Mrs. Loren Blunt is director of the club.
