C. T. Fisher, Jr., Named Treasurer of Aviation Week

Charles T. Fisher, Jr., of E. Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills, president of the National Bank of Detroit, will act as treasurer of the Fifth Annual Michigan Aviation Week Program. It is announced by the Aero Club of Michigan. William M. Packer is chairman and Governor Kim Siler is honorary chairman.

Fisher, who was recently appointed a director of American Airlines, Inc., acted as treasurer of Michigan Aviation Week last year, the program being sponsored annually by the Aero Club of Michigan. Last year's event produced the most outstanding program in Michigan's history including the Michigan Aircraft Show, National Meeting of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences and the International and State Model Plane Championships.

The program for 1948, which is tentatively scheduled for the latter part of June, promises to be an even greater aviation event. Included in the discussions are the International Air Fair, Michigan Flying Championships, Michigan Navigational Air Race, Michigan Model Plane Championships, International Model Plane Contest and other outstanding events. The cost of the program is estimated at $75,000.

Fisher is vice-president of the Detroit Board of Trade and chairman of the Detroit Advisory Committee for the Fifth Army.

Here's a way to do the baby's washing, and all your personal laundry too, without ever leaving the kitchen. Just get a Handynet Electric Portable Washer at Craig Appliance, Inc., 112 S. Woodward Ave. The Handynet holds two to three pounds of dry clothes that are washed by an agitator driven by a motor in the cover. The whole thing sits right on a kitchen shelf, or you can put it on the stove to sterilize diapers or use it for dyeing material while the stirring is done automatically. The Handynet Washer comes in porcelain enamel, aluminum or stainless steel, and is priced from $26.95 to $39.95. Accessories include a small roller type wringer ($7.95), the Handynet Childrain attachment ($3.95) and a miniature laundry you'll find useful anywhere in the house.

Entertaining this week end? Make it easy by calling Wegener's Wine Shop, 255 Pierce St., (Phone 4083) and placing your order for local or imported beers, fine wines and champagnes. Wegener's deliver on Saturday, but that's good enough for you and your supplies. The shop has a marvelous line of party foods, too—luscious and unusual tidbits that make my mouth water just to think about them. The shop also has bar supplies so you can order anything from a new jigger to some of the best looking mixer glasses I've found yet. Remember the phone—4083.

Looking for something really unusual in wallpaper? Stop at Wieland's Fine Furniture, 523 N. Woodward, and see the Wilton-Owens hand prints that are available on special order only. You can select any color or color combination imaginable and have the paper made up exactly the way you want it. Or you might pick out a Schumacher paper having colors correlated with the colors in the famous Schumacher fabrics to give really effective decorative results. Wieland's also have hand painted scenic papers which enable you to have a complete panoramic scene running clear around any room.

Really folks, I never get tired of telling you about the perfectly delicious food and marvelous ice cream you can get at Mint's Ice Cream, 1950 S. Woodward. All of their ice cream is made on the premises from the finest ingredients available and the quality is immediately evident in the taste and texture. Mint's have a wide range of flavors, too, so you can please everyone in the family. So next time you're shopping, stop at Mint's for lunch and take home a quart or two of ice cream and store it in the freezer of your refrigerator. It will be a welcome surprise for the whole family.

Do you have different sized beds in your house and always have trouble fishing through the linen stock to find the right size for the right bed? That seems to be a common experience but here's a way out. McHollands have sheets in four different colors—blue, rose, yellow and peach in both full and twin bed sizes. And when you always use the same color on the same bed, there's never any mix-up, and they add a welcome touch of color to the bedrooms, too. While you're about it, freshen up the bedrooms with their marquisette curtains with 7 inch ruffles. They come in all sizes.

Walter-Dymond Lamp Studio, that opened only last year in the Adams Square Bldg., Adams Rd. at Woodward, has already found it necessary to expand. They now have a separate department devoted entirely to lamp shades. You'll find every size and type of lamp shade imaginable, for both table lamps and floor lamps. There are the most enticing new colors, including wild cherry red, Emory green, and chardreuse, as well as the usual pastel shades that go with any interior. Walter-Dymond shades are hand tailored, washable, and have rust resistant frames that will keep their shape for years.
