Newlyweds Will Make Their Home in New Mexico

Before an altar decked with huge bouquets of white gladioli, white carnations, and intermingled with daffodils, Beverly Shirley Jean Johnson spoke her marriage vows Saturday afternoon to Dr. Joseph Mullikin Miller. Rev. Theodore Weggesser read the marriage vows at 4:30 in the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, West Maple road.

Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone of North Woodward avenue, Dr. Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl N. Miller of Terre Haute, Ind. The bride wore cream satin brocade with a tight bodice and a full skirt, and long fitted sleeves. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a banner of blue-of-the-valley, and she carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Mrs. Edith Purdy Gaspar, acting as her sister's matron of honor, was attired in yellow silk tulle and carried a bouquet of blue carnations. The bridesmaids, including Miss Christina Givens of Westwood drive and Mrs. Melvin Sargent of Terre Haute, Ind., sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Jane Welsh, were gowned alike in aqua silk tulle and carried bouquets of red carnations.

Robert J. Nulleit of Peoria, Ill., acted as Dr. Miller's best man, and the ushers were Ted W. Johnson, brother of the bride, Herbert J. Webster of Royal Oak, and Melvin Sargent of Terre Haute, Ind. Mrs. Johnson chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of champagne crepe with a hat trimmed with pink roses, and Mrs. Miller wore a gown of grey crepe and a flower trimmed hat.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride for 125 guests, including the sorority sisters and fraternity brothers of the newlyweds. Mrs. Miller wore for her going away costume a two-piece navy blue silk suit, one of which she wore a rose colored coat, and her hat was navy blue trimmed with flowers.

Mrs. Miller is a graduate of Michigan State College and a member of Kappa Delta sorority. She was employed at the Pontiac State Hospital as a psychologist and social worker. Dr. Miller is a member of ATO Fraternity and a graduate of Michigan State College. He is now located in New Mexico.
