Albion College Alumni to Meet

For the first time since the recent war, alumni of Albion College will meet to renew acquaintance and hear the president of the college, Dr. W. W. Whitehouse, speak when the North Woodward Albion Alumni give a dinner and evening's entertainment April 22 at the Royal Oak Methodist Church at 6:30 p.m.
This group comprises some 250 alumni from Ferndale, Pleasant Edges, Royal Oak, Huntington Woods, Berkley and Birmingham.
Dinner meetings of this type are being held throughout the country during this week for it is a traditional time for all Albion alumni to be reminded that graduates from the college are all around the world.

Letters are being sent to those people who live in the North Woodward area giving them the opportunity to reserve a place at the dinner. If there are others who do not receive such a letter, they are asked to contact Mrs.
Florence P. Miller, 410 Waverly, Royal Oak, in Birmingham, information can be obtained by calling Hugh McLesee.
