Newly elected officers for the coming year are: regent, Mrs. Larges; vice-regent, Mrs. R. Hopkins; chaplain, Mrs. Glenn Levey; recording secretary, Mrs. Richard Quayle; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Adams; treasurer, Mrs. Lee Stawell; secretary, Mrs. Arman Davison; historical librarian, Mrs. John Gaydos; directors, Mrs. Robert Vint, Mrs. Lyle Brown and Mrs. Harold Hill.

The officers will be officially installed at the annual meeting in May.

Mrs. Bloom and Mrs. Vint are attending the Continental Congress at Washington, D. C. this week.

Village Players Present Season's Finale

Portraying bar maids in the forthcoming Village Players production of "Out of This World" are (left to right) Mrs. William Spinao, Mrs. Richard Stewart and Mrs. F. E. Howell.

By Doris Kus
Once a year the Village Players present a show which is open to the public. This year they have drawn from their best talent and will stage "Out of This World", a musical revue which is not only acted and script-written by members of the group.

"Out of This World" will be presented for five nights: Friday, April 30, Saturday, May 1, Thursday, May 6, Friday, May 7, and Saturday, May 8.

James Bullock, author of the play, has the leading part of the professor who discovered a formula for Utopia which is better than Russian communism or American democracy. The formula works and the cast is thrown into a Utopia which is well populated with pretty girls and humorous situations.

Specially Written Music
Ward Tolzien who wrote the music for the show, Joins Bruce Booth as piano accompanist. Singing roles are carried by D. Pierson Smith, Richard Stewart and Mrs. D. Pierson Smith. There will be featured comedy songs: One entitled "Traveling Man" will be performed by Mrs. Linton Hart; "Double Trouble" will be sung by Mrs. Dean Coffin for whom the words were especially written. Mrs. Coffin is the mother of twins.

"Out of This World" is being directed by Mrs. Wallace R. Ivers who also does two dance numbers. Arthur J. Underwood is the producer. Mrs. J. Reid Alexander is assistant director.

The beautiful costumes have been designed by Mrs. John G.

Hammond with Mrs. George Green, Mrs. F. E. Howell, Mrs. L. M. Baker, Mrs. John Gilray, Mrs. John Hollister, Mrs. Rolfe Spinao and Harriette Alexander assisting.

Plenty of Comedy
The cast includes Mrs. Thordyke Dwellley as the South Sea Mrs. William Breech as China Doll, Barbara Stecker as the Bakino and Patricia Donnelly as Mann'selle. Mrs. Breech also does a specialty number entitled "Valedictorian".

Mrs. F. E. Howell, Mrs. Richard Stewart and Mrs. William Spinao are barmaids. Thordyke Dwellley is the bartender. F. Clifford Guest does a featured song as a miser with Lyle Latta playing the part of the beggar. Three old maids are played by Mrs. James Hodges, Mrs. William Martin and Mrs. Dean Coffin.

Comedy is provided for in "Out of This World". Walter Skimins in a hilarious scene, plays a radio announcer interviewing Mrs. Lloyd Linton. Mrs. Lawrence Colgrove, William Martin, Warren Pease and James Hodges also help keep the light pace.

Season Finale
Mrs. Basil Frawley directed the dance numbers and Barbara Stecker instructed the chorus. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ivers are featured in a waltz.

Mrs. Harold Towne and Mrs. Gordon Love are in charge of proprietorship. Mrs. Spinao and Mrs. Wallace Ivers are the photographers which appear on the posters. The set was designed by Frederick Reynolds, Charles Blunt, Gordon Pennington and Sidney Oldberg.

This is the last show of the season, and the Players expect a capacity crowd.

Moment Musical

Miss Susan Swartz, 2512 Dorchester road, was hostess for the April meeting of the Moment Musical. Entertainment was presented by Kathryn Skelley, Carol Faulkner and Susan Swartz who gave piano solos.

Dick Emery played a number on the clarinet. For refreshments, cakes and cookies were served.

Among the members of the group who were awarded prizes at the recent Music Festival are Dick Emery with a second on the clarinet, Bill Berndt with a first on the cornet and Roy Phillips with a first on the cornet.

The cornet trio consisting of Jim Craig, Benny Phillips and Bill Berndt won a first at the Festival.

Community Concerts Begins Ticket Drive

Mrs. Herbert M. Gardner, Sr. has announced that the membership drive of the South Oakland County Concert Association will be held this week and next week.

This is the only opportunity to purchase tickets, as none will be sold at the doors and no advance explanations.

There will be four concerts by famous artists in the 1948-49 season. The concerts will be held in the Royal Oak High School auditorium.

Have You Met

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ritten. They have come from Chicago to make their home at 1119 E. Maple road. Mr. Ritten will be sales division of an automobile firm.
