Newlyweds Will Make Future Home in Birmingham

Christ Episcopal Church, Shaker Heights, Ohio, was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday, April 6, when Winifred Jean Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert

Mrs. Henry Marcus Dahlquist, Jr.

Frederick Smith of Warrington, road, Shaker Heights, spoke her marriage vows to Henry Marcus Dahlquist, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dahlquist of Henrietta street, Birmingham.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, and Mr. Dahlquist stood in a flower trimmed chancel decked with Easter lilies and candelabra ferns. The altar was flanked on either side with two branch candelabra holding lighted tapers. Rev. Maxwell Dowell read the marriage service.

The bride was gown in ivory satin, the bodice having a net yoke and a drop shoulder effect from which fell a wide bertha of duchess lace. The skirt was full with a long train and her skull cap of duchess lace held in place the finger tip length illusion veil. Her flowers were a cascade of camellias and freesia.

Mrs. R. F. Seaman was her sister's matron of honor and wore a champagne crepe, fashioned with a high neck, cap sleeves, straight skirt and a chantilly lace peplum falling to a point in back. She wore lace mits of a matching shade and her flowers were Johanna Hill roses and red camellia leaves.

Miss Marjorie Smith, another sister of the bride, was similarly attired. Mary Louise Buhay, niece of the bridegroom, wore a dress of pale blue starched chiffon and carried a Colonial nosegay of sweetheart flowers.

John C. Thomas acted as best man and the ushers included Rena Aikler, R. Johnson, Jr., Jonathan Alder and Robert Pagsley.

Following the ceremony a reception took place at the Shaker Heights Country Club, Mr. and Mrs. Dahlquist receiving their guests before an embarkment of
