Former Resident is Wed in Vermont to Michigan Pastor

From Rutland, Vt., comes the announcement that a former Birmingham resident, Mrs. Mary Aldrich Ward and the Rev. Clyde H. Wilcox were married Aug. 2 in the Congregational Church at St. Dunstan's Chapel of Christ Church in Rutland.

Mrs. Wilcox, a native of Rutland, was graduated from the Pratt Institute in Brooklyn and the Teachers' College of Columbia University. She was a long-time teacher in White Plains, N. Y., St. Clair and Rochester, Mich. A member of the Palette and Brush Club of Detroit, she also belonged to the Birmingham Piety Hill Chapter of the D.A.R., and the New England Club of Port Huron.

Mr. Wilcox, D. D., has been pastor of the First Congregational Church in St. Clair, Mich., since 1939. He was graduated from Greenville high school, Olivet College and the Chicago Theological Seminary. Olivet College granted him an honorary D. D. in 1944, and he also taught there. He has been pastor in Eaton Rapids, Allegan and St. Clair, Mich. He is now a trustee of Olivet College and of the Michigan Congregational Christian Conference as well as a member of the Eastern Association.

Beth Ann Bradt Becomes Bride of Edward F. Krise

Beth Ann Bradt and Edward Fisher Krise repeated their vows before the Rev. Robert DeWitt, Elwood Hill was at the organ. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Albert Murray of Tilbury road and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. Greer of Wayzata, Lake Minnetonka, Minn.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long gown of candlelight satin fashioned with a fitted bodice. Her fingertip veil was held by a tara of French lace which matched the lace insert in the sweetheart neckline of her dress. Her bouquet was made up of white roses and stephanotis.
Miss Beatrice Newberry of Detroit, the bride's only attendant was dressed in a gown of ice blue and carried a bouquet of pink marigolds. Miss Kristin Nielsen of Evanston, Ill., niece of the bridegroom led the procession down the aisle as a flower girl in a long dress of pink organdy. She carried a little basket of rose petals.
Richard Chenoweth came from Indianapolis to be the best man and the guests were seated by Charles Murray, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Edward Krise
Cranbrook on Thursday, Aug. 5. Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Bradt of Ridgedale avenue are the bride's parents and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gomer Krise of Chevy Chase, Md., formerly of Grosse Pointe.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was gowned in white marquisette. The dress was fashioned with a wide embroidered hertha, a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a rose point lace crown that had once been worn by Mrs. Krise. Her only jewelry was a pearl circle pin belonging to her mother. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and larkspur.

The two bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Lou Whitelaw and Miss Mary Lewis Booth, both of Birmingham, wore yellow marquisette gowns with matching picture hats. To their arms they carried bouquets consisting of white gladiol and ivy.
Dick Saell of New York served as best man and seating the guests were David Bradt, Lee Kitchin of Grosse Pointe and David Knight of Grosse Ile.

For the wedding, Mrs. Bradt chose a grey floor length dress. Her hat was green maline and her gloves and purse were white. Sweetheart roses made up the corsage she wore on her shoulder. Mrs. Krise was dressed in a beige suit with a matching hat. A brown orchid completed her ensemble.

After a reception at Guild Hall, the newlyweds started off on a motor trip to the east. As they left on the first step of their journey, Mrs. Krise was wearing a grey gingham suit with a blue hat and accessories. She wore a corsage of red rosebuds on her shoulder. Upon their return, they will make their home in Providence, R. I.
Out of town guests for the event were Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Osmun of Washington and Dr. and Mrs. Anthony Saell of New York City.

Wendorph Family Plans for Next Year's Reunion

Members of the Wendorph family reunion at Springdale Park recently welcomed for the first time the presence of Mrs. Dean Johnston of Birmingham.

Officers were elected for the coming year. They are president E. Howard Wendorph; vice-president, Fred Smauder; secretary, Dorothy Fox of Birmingham and treasurer, Alden Smauder. The chairman in charge of the next reunion are Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Smauder.
After dinner the group participated in the traditional picnic sports and some members went off to the golf course.
The only representative from New York present was Chris Smauder.

Mrs. John C. Palmer is chairman of the arrangements committee and Mrs. William H. Cartwright, Mrs. Harry A. Snure and Mrs. Willard E. Welch are assisting. Mrs. Damon S. Hall is the social chairman of the club.

Bridge Luncheon at Pine Lake Club

A ladies' bridge luncheon has been planned for Wednesday, Aug. 18 at 12:30 at the Pine Lake Country Club.
Co-chairmen for the event are Mrs. G. D. Patterson and Mrs. O. H. Jacobs. They will be assisted by committee members Mrs. W. S. Buck, Mrs. F. Hawley and Mrs. W. W. Slocum. Mrs. T. E. Chase is the general chairman.

Mrs. Edward Greer
flowers were pink and white rubrum lilies. Mrs. Greer's gown was grey with rust colored accessories and she pinned a rust colored orchid to her shoulder.

The reception was held in Guild Hall following the ceremony. After the bride cut the cake Mrs. Frank Evans of Mason, Mich., and Miss Margaret Greer of Minneapolis, Minn., assisted at the punch table. The Misses Sally Mock, Joan and Judy Sappington and Margaret Richey assisted at the punch table.

For her going away suit, the new Mrs. Greer chose a portrait green outfit with cocoa brown accessories and a green orchid.
After a wedding trip in northern Minnesota, the young couple will make their home at 812 Summit, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.
