

Lathrup Village News

By LILLIAN DIEDERICH

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Peppiat of Saratoga boulevard were hosts Saturday evening at a picnic supper in their garden in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight-Joelyn of the Village who are moving to Dallas, Tex., on Tuesday. Mr. Joelyn was transferred there. Another honor guest was Mrs. Alice Fries of Los Angeles who has been their houseguest the past two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stephenson and son Bruce are in northern Canada on a motor trip. They spent some time at Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mason and sons, Robert, John, and Thomas, of San Jose drive, are at Roseau Sound, Ont.

The Harvey Strongs, formerly of West Sunset boulevard, have moved to Royal Oak. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shrimmer of Saratoga boulevard will move to Birmingham in September.

Miss Lisa Hansen of Denmark who has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Cody of Birmingham road, was hostess at a garden picnic last Thursday to a group of her Danish and American friends.

Ray Downey of Glenwood boulevard is at home this week from New York City, where he is doing some research work for his firm.

Barbara Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Jones of Golden Gate drive, is doing student occupational therapy work at Pontiac State hospital. She will resume her studies in this field at Western Michigan college, Kalamazoo, in the fall.

Janet and Mickey Kimberly of Meadowbrook way whose birthdays fall within the same week, celebrated their eighth and eleventh birthdays, respectively, with a party for their Lathrup friends. Guests included Carol Starkey, Linda Chapman, Diane Kuhagen, Marilyn Starkey, Tommy McCracken, Paul, Ralph and Bruce Doerent. Competitive games were played and a lawn supper served.

D. P. Frame, supervisor of Southfield Township, has announced that the board has employed Alfred W. Kruck as chief of the Southfield Township fire department. Before this assignment, the fire department elected one of

Will Become Next Winter's Natural Gas

Michigan Gas Storage Company employees are shown unloading liquid propane from tank cars at a siding near the Wierfield natural gas storage field in northwestern Clare County. The liquid is later converted into gas and injected into the storage field to reinforce next winter's natural gas supply in Birmingham and other Michigan cities served by Consumers Power Company. By October 15, a total of 1,200 cars, representing a billion feet of gas, will have been unloaded.

their firemen each year to net as chief.

Chief Kruck recently retired from 26 years active service with the Detroit fire department. He was stationed at Berg road and Schoolcraft.

The chief will make regular inspections of plants and school buildings and he will give periodic lectures throughout the township on fire prevention and protection. The Southfield Fire department has three pieces of the latest fire-fighting equipment and three paid full-time firemen besides a volunteer force.

An open house party is being planned for early September when the new convent for the nuns of the Shrine of the Little Flower will be completed. Parishioners who are anxious to see the completed project, are invited.

An "inquiry and forum" on Catholic doctrine and practices is about to be launched in the Shrine Parish. It will be the means to learn from authoritative sources the answers to some of the perplexing questions assailing Catholics on all sides, and to acquaint non-Catholics with reliable information on Catholicism.

The "Twenty-Up Club" will resume activities at an early date, and qualified persons are urged to watch for the days of the meeting and make themselves known so that they can be in active part of the organization. The club is open to membership of career, college, and at-home persons within the age bracket.

Totem Poles See Tiger-Indian Game

Because the game between the Detroit Tigers and the New York Yankees was rained out August 4, the YMCA again took a group to Briggs Stadium, to see the Tigers emerge victorious against the Cleveland Indians by a score of 7 to 3. The game had many thrills including two homers by Mullen and Lipon.

Among the boys and girls present were Mike and Jim Pryce, Mike Groves, Billy Lawson, Harold Bricker, Glen, Art, and Clifford Sorron, Dick Dusz, Jim Oaks, Neal Shodks, Darlene Groves, Pat Capling, Jack Richards, Charles Harris, Bennett Wright, Jimmy Truesell, Johnny Townsend, Steve Daly, Jim Serguson, Clark Hallas, Bill Sickenberger, Tom Stinson, Dorothy Ojala, Bob Hunter, Margaret Seyferth, Dean and Billy Fox, and Joe, Frank, Nicky, and Flora Mae Bashlines.

The trip was sponsored by the Birmingham YMCA and was the last trip of the summer season.
