Mrs. Alfred Grann at Child Welfare Meeting in Sweden

Mrs. Alfred E. Grann, 452 Bonnie Briar, attended the biennial conference of the International Union for Child Welfare from Aug. 10-16, in Stockholm, Sweden, as a delegate of the Save the Children Federation. Mrs. Grann is vice-chairman of the National Danish division of the Federation. Delegates to the conference dealing with child welfare problems represented most of the 37 countries which have Save-the-Children organizations coordinated through the IUCW.

The Save the Children Federation, which has national headquarters at 1 Madison Avenue, New York City, and Michigan State office in the Charlevoix Building, 2032 Park avenue, Detroit, is at present conducting programs to aid children in Austria, Finland, France, Holland and Greece, as well as in the United States, where it works in disadvantaged rural areas of eight states.

Other U. S. delegates who were present at the conference were: Dr. John R. Voris, president of the Federation; Dr. Charles B. Joy, associate executive director; Mrs. Olga J. Lowman, European administrator; Mrs. Ruth Gage Colby, chairman of the St. Paul, Minn., SCF chapter and Mrs. Otto Lundell of Detroit, chairman of the National Swedish committee of the Federation.

Mallory-Stover Rites Read in South Bend, Ind.

In a setting of white gladioli, palms and candelabra, Miss Mary Esther Stover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Stover, of South Bend, Ind., became the bride of Robert Willis Mallory. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis B. Mallory of Pine Street, Birmingham. The Rev. George Dick presided at the ceremony in the First Baptist Church in South Bend. Mr. and Mrs. James Inwood sang "At Dawning", "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional white satin gown with a chantilly lace bertha, long pointed sleeves and a full skirt fashioned with a bustle back which fell into a long train edged with matching lace. Her fingertip veil of Swiss illusion was held by a tiara of satin and lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. William T. Moore of Washington, D. C., acted as matron of honor in a rose orchid taffeta gown. Her flowers were arranged in a colonial bouquet with matching flowers in her hair.

The bridesmaids were Miss Jane Mallory of Birmingham, a sister of the bridegroom who wore an aqua marquisette gown and Mrs. Harold Mathisen of Ann Arbor whose dress was of pink marquisette. Their flowers were pink camelias in cascade bouquets and they wore matching flowered tiaras on their heads.

Following a reception in the church parlors, the couple left on a trip to the Smoky Mountains. After the first of September, they will reside in Kalamazoo.

The new Mrs. Mallory was graduated from Kalamazoo College and was affiliated with Euro-dolphian Literary Society. Mr. Mallory is in his senior year at Kalamazoo College and is a member of the Century Forum.

MOMS, Music Clubs Appeal for Your Used Instruments

Would you be willing to repay just a little all that you owe to a veteran of World War I? The MOMS of America, Inc., and the Michigan Federation of Music clubs are making an appeal for used musical instruments which are in playing condition.

Mrs. Herbert E. Gardner, 172 Aspen, who is in charge of this appeal, has announced that donations of an orchestra or band instrument are being asked for in behalf of the Dearborn Veteran's Hospital in order that the many veterans who would like to play together may have that opportunity.

Donald Williams, a member of the recreation staff of the hospital hopes to form a band, orchestra or small ensembles if the needed instruments can be obtained.

"Perhaps there is an instrument lying about the house somewhere that isn't being used and which, chances are, won't be used at all anyway. Perhaps there is a club or organization which can get together and locate a violin, cello, clarinet, saxophone, flute, trumpet or trombone, maybe even an accordion which no one wants but which can be so beneficial to the hospitalized veteran who knows how to play or just wants to learn how to play," Mrs. Gardner said. "It would be so little to give to someone who has given so much."

Mrs. Gardner will be ready to accept all donations to this cause.

THEY KEEP THEM In Their Desks

Have you ever wondered on special occasions at the promptness with which some persons send Greeting Cards? They remember, and send them to you so promptly that it seems hardly possible they could have selected an appropriate Greeting Card so quickly.

They didn't! They keep them in their desks!

Many of our customers choose Greeting Cards for different occasions, doing so at their leisure, and then already have them at hand when the opportunity arises to wish a happy birthday, to send congratulations to proud young parents, to cheer a friend who is ill—or the many occasions which call for the prompt thoughtfulness of Greeting Cards.

The completeness of our Greeting Card selection makes it a pleasure to choose a "home assortment" that is just right!
