Nuptials Solemnized in Christ Church, Cranbrook

At an afternoon ceremony at Christ Church Cranbrook on Friday, Miss Blanche Marie Thomas became the bride of Carl H. Rogers. The couple repeated their vows before the Rev. Robert L. DeWitt at an altar which was banked with white flowers and candles. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Thomas of Pon Valley road, Bloomfield Hills and the bridegroom is the son of Prof. and Mrs. F. E. Rogers of Columbia, Mo.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in traditional white satin. The dress had a marquise yoke neckline, a wide satin embroidered bodice, traditional long pointed sleeves and a fitted bodice. The panned, full skirt had an embroidered front panel and swept in a chapel train. Her illusion fingertip veil fell from a band of satin petals clusters and she carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and bouvardia. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

As maid of honor, a sister, Miss Patricia Rule of Bloomfield Hills wore a shell pink taffeta gown designed with a sweetheart neckline, short sleeves and a full panned skirt. On her head she wore a natural colored wide brimmed straw hat trimmed with velvet ribbons. Her bouquet consisted of pale blue carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Peggy Pittman of Bloomfield Hills and Miss Marlene Thomas, a sister of the bride, were gowned in mint green taffeta cut along the same lines as Miss Rule's. They carried bouquets of tea roses.

Philip Rogers served as his brother's best man and seating the guests were Thomas L. Thomas, a brother of the bride, Thomas Rule, Richard Lander and Edward Proter of Bloomfield Hills; Willis Vanderberg of Grand Rapids and David Rogers of Columbia, Mo.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Thomas chose a honey colored lace gown of ballerina length. Her matching hat and a corsage of white gardenias and red roses.

Following a reception held at the Oakland Hills Country Club, the young couple left on a wedding trip to Traverse Bay. For her going away outfit, the new Mrs. Rogers selected a three piece gien plaid suit with cocoa brown accessories. A gardenia corsage completed her ensemble.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will make their home in Columbia, Mo.

MISS CONNIE MCGHRR of Evergreen road, has just returned to Birmingham after spending four weeks in Toronto and the Muskoka Lake region in Ontario.

Aileen C. Watson Becomes Bride of Edwin F. Lau

In a candlelight nuptial service at Christ Church Cranbrook on Saturday, Miss Aileen Claire Watson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Watson of Pembroke road was married to Edwin Forbes Lau. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lau of Huntington Woods. The Rev. Kenneth Morris of All Saints Church in Pontiac officiated at the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in silver satin fashioned with a yoke of illusion which was bordered with a bertha of silver trumpet beads. Her sleeves were long and fitted. Her full skirt fell into a cathedral train and the long illusion veil, edged with rose point lace was held with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on a white satin prayer book.

Her bridal attendants were Miss Jean Helen Anstok of Royal Oak who acted as maid of honor and the bridesmaids, Miss Betty Jean
