PUBLIC NOTICE
RESOLUTION NUMBER 10485-1948
BIRMINGHAM CITY COMMISSION
Moved by Commissioner Martin,
Supported by Commissioner Main,
WHEREAS, it appears that the public sidewalk has not been built to the full and proper width in front of certain properties on the South side of Maple Avenue between Pierce Street and Blaine Street, and on Pierce Street between Maple Avenue and Martin Street, and
WHEREAS, it appears that the travel vehicular way will very shortly be widened to a greater extent between such,
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that it is necessary to complete the construction of sidewalk between the building line and the new curb, on the south side of Maple Avenue and on with younger children, as will be the adjoining unit to the west.

"Although much work is still to be done on the streets approaching the project to bring them up to city standards, it is expected that the Eton road construction from Maple avenue north to the terrace will be completed this fall," Graef explained.

Lathrup Village News

By LILLIAN DIEDERICH
Mary Jo Stock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Stock of San Diego boulevard, and Thomas Babington, son of Thomas Babington of San Jose drive, were united in marriage at a ten o'clock nuptial mass in Dun Scotus chapel Saturday with the Rev. Bartholomew O. F. McO'Keefe officiating.
Tall vases of white stock and gladioli and seven-pronged candelabra, beaded with a satin pique Dieu upon which the couple knelt.

Robert Babington served his brother as best man and the ushers were James Campbell and Howard Stock, the bride's brother.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a duchesse cravat gown designed for torso effect, having long bodice of rose point lace and fitted lace sleeves, pointed at the wrists.
The satin skirt with paillettes at either side draped into a sweeping train. A braided satin tiara with fingers full of illusion formed her headdress. She carried a white prayer book to which was attached a white orchid with sprays of baby breath.
The satin sash with paillettes at either side draped into a sweeping train. A braided satin tiara with fingers full of illusion formed her headdress. She carried a white prayer book to which was attached a white orchid with sprays of baby breath.
Peggy Babington, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and Kay O'Neill and Jane Bigler were the bridesmaids. The trio wore identical gowns fashioned of light blue embroidered velvet with bouffant skirts and fitted blouses with draped flitch effect necklines. Their hats were of blue horse hair and flower trimmed and they carried asstas daisies.
Missive Mary and James Bigler were the flower girl. She too was gowned like the attendants, wearing a matching bouquet and she carried a basket of flowers.
For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stock had another was attired in a forest green crepe gown with hat in harmonizing green tones.
A reception for 200 guests at the Birmingham Golf club took place in the afternoon. The bridal table was centered with a three-tiered cake, topped with satin bells; at either end of the table were crystal candelabra.
The bride's great uncle, William Monk of Memphis, Tenn., was present for the ceremony, following the wedding trip east, the couple will resume their studies at the University of Detroit.

Miss Jean Sullivan and Miss Hazel Rose of Burton, Ohio, are visiting the Eugene Himes of Santa Barbara drive. Their daughter, Nancy Himes, will return with them for a short stay. Sarah Himes, her sister, is visiting Elmer Gormons, formerly of the village, who are at Alpena for a few weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Bigler of Delores are announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Janet Mary, to Allison William Rapetto of St. Petersburg, Fla., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Allison Rapetto of that city.
The ceremony will be performed in St. Petersburg.
Doris Jean, sister of the bride, will attend her and William W. Rapetto, his brother, who is best man. Janet has been visiting her fiancé's parents the past few months.
On Sunday afternoon Pat Campbell of Detroit was hostess at a shower in honor of Janet. Doris Jean Bigler, another sister, is at home for a two weeks' stay at Ocean City, J. The Bigler family will leave for the south this week.

Pat Heberer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Heberer of Meadowbrook way, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Heberer, Sr., of St. Louis. Her sister, Mary Jane Heberer, is at home from Camp House on the Hill, Brighton, where she was a counselor this summer.
Mr. and Mrs. Eric Kurth and Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Kurth's mother, were supper guests Sunday at the home of the Walter J. Howard of Ruckham boulevard.

Theft of building materials from a construction job at 1354 Delores avenue has been reported by P. F. Schmidt of Evergreen road. Schmidt told deputies at the sheriff's office that 36 bags of cement and 100 bundles of rock lath were stolen from the place.
With building materials at a premium, several cases of thievery have been reported in Southfield Township but this is the first of its kind in the village.

The teaching staff of the Annie Lathrup school is principal, Kathryn McLean, master grade; Marilyn E. Frenze, first grade; life certificates; Francis Stover, B. S.; Sylvia Edelstein, B. A.
The Southfield Kiwanis club has donated $20 toward the purchase of prizes to be awarded at the school district's Field Day at Harry C. Anderson, president of the Kiwanis, accepted with regret the resignation of Ben Clark as first vice-president. A nominating committee will select candidates for that office at the next meeting.
