

Former Resident Is Married on Aug. 21 to Virginia Girl

Miss Mary Louise Beard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Beard, of Louisville, Va., was married to James R. Packard in the chancel of the Presbyterian Church at 11th and Arbor on the afternoon of Aug. 21. Dr. Henderson officiated. Packard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Packard of Clarkburg, West Va., formerly of Birmingham. For her wedding the bride wore a white lace street length dress with white accessories.

Miss Mary Carmel Delp was the maid of honor and Frederick William Hutchinson of Birmingham served as best man. John A. Gilray of Birmingham and Robert Ames of Whittemore Lake seated the guests.

The reception was held in the Church following the ceremony.

Village Nursery School Has New Franklin Locale

The Village Nursery school in Franklin will begin its fall term in what was formerly the "Temperance Hotel" on Franklin road.

This historic building was purchased from the Van Every family and is about one-hundred years old. The present owner has completely renovated and modernized the interior to suit the specific needs of small children.

"Stair-lamps" are to be installed in each room and a modern heating plant is now under construction. Originally planned to serve the Franklin area, the school has increased its facilities and augmented its teaching staff to such an extent in the past four years that it now transports children from Isoomhead, Birmingham, Walnut Lake, Beverly Hills, Royal Oak, Berkley and Huntington Woods.

Orchids from Hawaii

Nine soft lavender orchids were pinned to Mrs. Alex Hatos' shoulder when she and Mr. Hatos of East Maple avenue dined with friends last Friday evening at the Fox and Hounds. The occasion was the Hatos' 21st wedding anniversary and Mr. Hatos had ordered the orchids flown over from Hawaii especially for the celebration.

Now at Will-O-Way, the Apple Barn Theatre

Charles Korvin, stage and screen star, is currently playing out at Will-O-Way in the sophisticated comedy, "Candle-Light", which originally starred the late Leslie Howard and Gertrude Lawrence. Korvin, whose acting career began in Paris, is a capable linguist with no less than five languages at his command. The play opened to a capacity crowd Tuesday and will run until Sept. 5.

When the fifth show of the summer strawhat season in the apple barn theatre, Will-O-Way, opened Tuesday evening, Charles Korvin, European import, led the cast in a sophisticated romantic comedy entitled "Candle-Light".

Korvin was born in Czechoslovakia and his biography reads like the mileage report of a gypsy. His acting career began in Paris and among his various excursions into other fields he covered the seige of Madrid as a news syndicate photographer and newscast camera-man. When he came to America his first big break was landing the male lead in "Dark Eyes", the Broadway hit play. A movie contract followed and his first film was "Enter Arsene Lupin".

In the supporting cast of "Candle-Light" are Gerald Harrington, Jenne Dishop, Carlton Scott of Birmingham who is prominent in the Village Players; Ingeborg Rosier; Joyce Westfall, John Beeman and Bob Langin, Jr. "Candle-Light" will play every evening except Monday until Sept. 5. As usual, there will be matinees on Saturday.

Will-O-Way is happy to announce that because of the wonderful response to their '48 season, they will produce a sixth show beginning on Sept. 7 and playing for two weeks. The play has not yet been announced but another comedy is promised.

Labor Day Weekend

Labor Day weekend at Oakland Hills Country Club will mean golf tournaments which will include the best 18 holes in a two-day play, a mixed scotch twosome played in foursomes and a men's and women's tennis tournament which will be going on for the entire three-day weekend. There will also be dinner and dancing.

Flower, Fruit and Vegetable Show Set for Sept. 11, 12

Walter Killing, 387 George street, chairman of the fifteenth annual flower, fruit and vegetable show, announced early this week that the exhibition will be held at the Community House on Sept. 11 and 12.

The event is being sponsored by the Bloomfield Hills and District Horticultural society and the exhibit will feature displays of annual and perennial flowers, arrangements of dishes of tree and vine fruit and a variety of vegetables.

It is expected that most exhibitors will be professional gardeners but a few amateurs will also put their produce on display. Blue, red and yellow ribbons will be awarded the winners.

A canopy show of special birds owned by Detroiters is also scheduled at this time. Other committee members are Walter Thornadyke, Simon DeWaal, Alger Muft and the secretary, Arthur Claxton.

SOCIETY NEWS must be in the Eccentric editorial office by five o'clock every Tuesday afternoon. Deadline for CLUB NEWS remains at noon Mondays.

Judges to Decide on Sept. 10 Who Bakes the Best Apple Pie

Apple pie lovers and bakers will be out in full force when, on Sept. 10, the Southfield Township apple pie contest is held in the Lathrup school. This event will be followed at 7:30 p.m. by an apple pie a la mode social.

Members of the Home Economics Extension Club are assisting in the details of the program and the affair is being given in connection with the county agricultural agent.

It has been decided that the first, second and third place winners will be eligible to compete in the Pontiac contest to be held on Sept. 17 and which is being sponsored by the Pontiac Daily Press in cooperation with the Agricultural Extension Service and the Service Clubs in these five counties.

Among those on the local committees are D. C. McKay, Melart Smith, Mrs. Wesley Roberts, Mrs. Vernon Green and Mrs. J. H. Goodwin.

Judges will make their decision on the color and surface of the pie, on the texture and flavor of the crust and on the favor and consistency of the filling.

Deadline for CLUB NEWS remains at noon Mondays.

Your Personal Greeting Cards for Christmas!

In the matter of greetings to be personalized it is always well to make your selection early because available designs dwindle as the Holiday Season approaches. Just for friendship's sake!

Some folks just naturally seem to have the knack of always doing the right thing at the right time. And it has been our observation that among the "right things" has been the giving of gifts FOR NO SPECIAL OCCASION. Those folks are imbued with the idea of doing something for someone, and they do it—forthwith—without waiting for Christmas, a birthday or an anniversary as the occasion.

To say that such gifts are successful gifts would be to put it mildly; indeed, gifts sent JUST FOR FRIENDSHIP'S SAKE are among the most successful that leave our shop!
